Feast of Tabernacles Memories

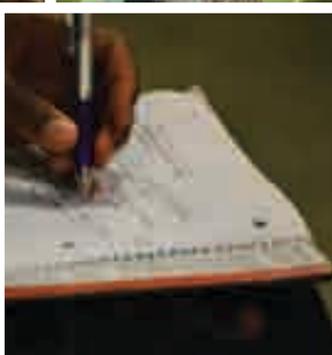

2011 FEAST OF TABERNACLES General Assembly of the Saints BETHEL, PA

Called and Chosen and Faithful

“You shall keep the feast of tabernacles seven days, after you have gathered in from your threshing-floor and from your winepress: and you shall rejoice in your feast, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your maid-servant, and the Levite, and the sojourner, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within your gates. Seven days shall you keep a feast to Yahweh your Elohim in the place which Yahweh shall choose; because Yahweh your Elohim will bless you in all your increase, and in all the work of your hands, and you shall be altogether joyful.” (Deuteronomy 16:13-15).

After a tiring journey, brethren busily set up their temporary dwellings in anticipation of observing Yahweh’s Feast of Tabernacles, the spiritual high-point of the year. The arduous struggle to arrive at the place where Yahweh has chosen to place His Name is quickly forgotten, and the camp quickly filled with smiling faces of those who are joyfully preparing for a mountain-top experience.

This sacred appointment marks the third and final step in our journey which begins each and every year at the Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread.

After a spiritual journey that began at Passover, the much-anticipated Feast of Tabernacles finally arrived. Gathering together with boughs of goodly trees, we seek to worship Yahweh in spirit and in Truth. Our temporary dwellings remind us that we are only sojourners on this earth.

Sharing fellowship with brethren of like, precious faith. Enjoying the fruits of Yahweh's harvest with an apple, banana, or cup of fresh apple cider.

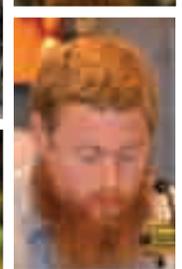

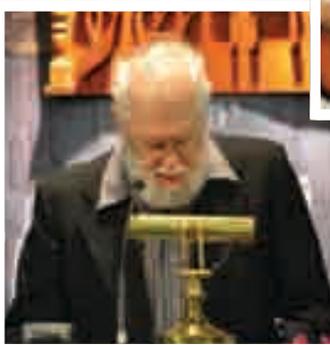

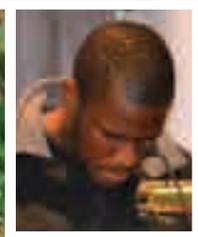

Throughout the Feast of Tabernacles, we have worship services every day. We also take a few hours to enjoy family time as well, with a fellowship meal.

Family day activities build family ties in our physical, as well as spiritual, families. The auction of donated items to raise money for special Assemblies of Yahweh projects such as Dalet School follows the fellowship meal.
