The vivid colors of the desert do not compare to how beautiful the desert and the wilderness will be when the Kingdom of Yahweh appears.

While flying over the Sahara Desert, I wondered what that vast expanse of wasteland will become during the Millennium, when it receives rain in due season. "For in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the glowing sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water: in the habitation of jackals, where they lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes." (Isaiah 35:6b-7).

Will you secure your place with the Redeemed of Yahweh who follow the Lamb wherever He goes? Will you be sealed with the Name of Yahweh and His Son, Yahshua the Messiah, in your forehead? Learn to live the Kingdom-way of life now to ensure your place with the ransomed of Yahweh. "They shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there: and the ransomed of Yahweh shall return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads: they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away." (Isaiah 35:9b-10).

Called By His Name

Truly, this contemporary society in which we are living today can be recognized to be the Laodicean era of the church which our Savior described in Revelation 3:14-22. “And to the angel of the assembly in Laodicea write: These things says the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of El: I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot: I would rather you were cold or hot. So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spew you out of my mouth. Because you say, I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing; and know not that you are the wretched one and miserable and poor and blind and naked: I counsel you to buy of me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness not be made manifest: and eyesalve to anoint your eyes, that you may see. As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock:

if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will have supper with him, and he with me. He that overcomes, I will give to him to sit down with me in my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father in his throne. He that has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”

It is almost inconceivable that within just a short span of years of less than a lifetime, the religious attitudes of the people have drifted from one of fervor and zeal for spiritual Truth, to one of apathy, indifference, lukewarmness, and complacency. The old, established religious organizations today are not even holding their own numerically. While population is increasing, statistics reveal that these denominations are decreasing annually. The reason, apparently, is not the lack of educated workers, since the ministers today are much better educated than they were during the years when membership increased. The root of the disintegration of organized religion can be traced directly to the lack of dynamic power behind the message, which is proclaimed from the pulpits as the Evangel of the Messiah. Speaking rather frankly, the message which denominational Christianity is preaching definitely is not the message which was proclaimed by our Savior and the early Apostolic Assembly. Would you like proof of this?

Are you still seeking to locate the true church? Are you still searching for that group of true worshipers within whose midst dwells the message of Truth which has descended all the way from the era of our Savior? If you are one of those people still searching, one of those people who have not closed their minds, what kind of a name would you be looking for, that these True Worshipers would be carrying? Conversely, do names really have much to do with the True Worship? Do you think that the Heavenly Father would turn His back on a group of people—perhaps withdraw His Holy Spirit from them—simply because they were calling themselves by some incorrect name? I have asked quite a few questions here, so let's do some exploring and see if we can locate satisfactory, tangible answers.

In a weekly periodical which is published near my home, an article appeared recently in which

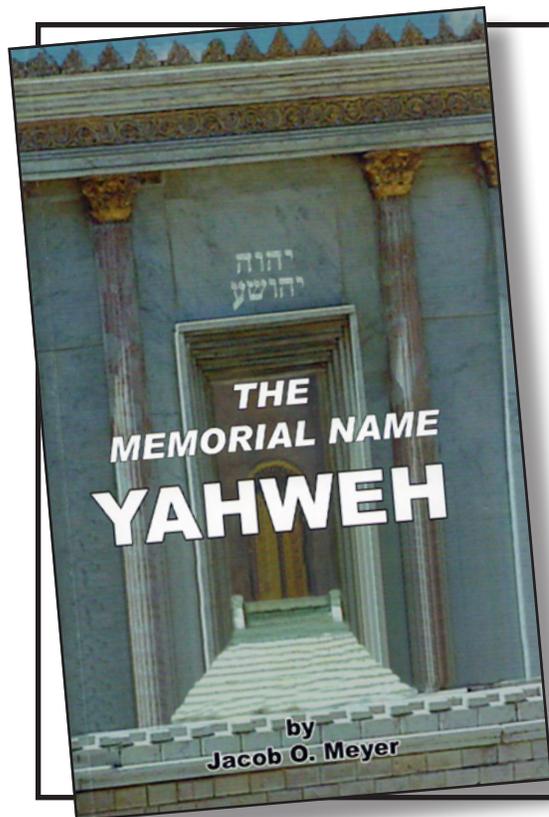

I learned that the Founder of the True Worshiper's organization was alive, living, and sitting at the controls of the universe. Because He is living and concerned about His people, He is directing His own Work personally from the Heavens. His people are called by His Name today, as they have been all the way down through history.

the author attempted to reconcile the fact that there are literally hundreds of different denominations in evidence in contemporary Christianity. As usual—with one who tries to alibi or brush aside a rather sticky, disturbing problem—this writer nimbly sidestepped several dogmatic issues by using the old cliché that the True Worshipers are located in every church denomination around the world. In fact, he emphasized that every person who had accepted the Messiah as his personal Savior was in that group. Actually, this makes the gate into everlasting life rather broad and the way leading there exceedingly wide, don't you think?

The question which entered my mind was this, "If there are people in every denomination who are presently in the Savior's Body, why do they call themselves by different names?" If you approach someone and ask him to what church he belongs, he might answer Lutheran, Reformed, Wesleyan, Baptist, Catholic, Seventh-day Adventist, etc. Just recently, I had occasion to ask an employee in a Bible store which church she attended, and the answer was Bible Fellowship Church. To this same interrogative, when asked of a young man, his reply was Mennonite. Now let me startle you just a little bit: none of those names are found in the Bible. They are nowhere in the Scriptures the name which was carried by the True Worshipers. If you don't believe me, verify it for yourself in a concordance. If these names are not found in the Bible, then why are they in use, and how can one body of believers call themselves by a host of different names? When I was a member of the Church of the Brethren in my younger years, it never once dawned upon me that the name of the True Worshipers is to be found in the Bible.

Most of the people who are members of nominal religion call their groups after their founders. This is the reason that you have Martin Luther churches, John Wesley churches, Menno Simon churches. However, consider for just a moment, that the founders of all of these denominations are dead. They died, and their movements died with them, although some of these groups are still much in evidence and quite large. Do they have the power which the Savior predicted would be in His Body all the way down through history?

seriously, I began to learn that I had to alter my thinking considerably on a lot of things, and one of them was on the name which the True Worshipers were calling themselves. I learned that the Founder of the True Worshiper's organization was alive, living, and sitting at the controls of the universe. Because He is living and concerned about His people, He is directing His own Work personally from the Heavens. His people are called by His Name today, as they have been all the way down through history.

One of the most eye-opening realizations which you can visualize is that the Body of the True Worshipers did not begin to take shape on the day of Pentecost in Acts chapter 2. All of nominal Christianity apparently traces its roots to that auspicious day. The Faith of which I am a member is much older than that! This Faith began all the way back in the Garden of Eden, when the Almighty promised that the seed of the woman would crush the head of the serpent in Genesis 3:15. Through the entire Old Testament, we can observe a group of people—sometimes comprised of only one man and his family—who held to this True Faith and conviction that one day the seed of the woman would crush the head of the serpent and destroy sin. Satan the Devil—the serpent—has not yet been crushed, or destroyed, as the Bible predicts that he will be in Romans 16:20, among other places, so this same Faith in the Messiah is still guiding the True Worshipers today.

After the Heavenly Father had used one man and his family to perpetuate His Faith for several hundred years, He blessed this family, and it became quite large numerically. This was the time that the family of Israel was called out of Egypt and was brought into a land of their own. In speaking about Moses and his conversation with the Angel of Yahweh, Stephen, preaching that magnificent sermon in his own defense before the Sanhedrin says, “This is he that was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel that spoke to him in the mount Sinai, and with our fathers: who received living oracles to give to us....” (Acts 6:30). Let me explain this verse just a little better. The word assembly is translated from the Greek word ecclesia. This word means an assembly or congregation of called out believers who are gathered for the purpose of true worship. I wonder if you have ever noticed that ancient Israel was called an assembly or the congregation in the wilderness? Certainly, they filled the description of being called out (of Egypt), similarly Abraham was called out (of Babylon), just as you today are being called out (also of Babylon in a spiritual sense) as we read in Revelation 18:4, “And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come forth, my people, out of her, that you have no fellowship with her sins, and that you receive not of her plagues....” Similar to ancient Israel, you are being called out today in the same True Worship, if you will heed the call. You will be able to join that select group of people who have been witnesses of the True Faith all the way down through history. You will be able to join that Apostolic Assembly which did not start on the day of Pentecost, as described in Acts chapter 2, but merely has a rebirth, as the Messianic Assembly, at that time. Incidentally, if you have ready access to a Webster’s Unabridged Dictionary, look up the word ch-rch, and you will find that the root word is not traced to the Greek word ecclesia, but to a much different source, and this is the reason why we do not call our group—The Assemblies of Yahweh—a ch-rch.

Since we are to call our spiritual organization after our founder, we should know His Name, don’t you think? In Ephesians 3:14-15, we find that this Name is indicated rather obviously. These two verses isolate this particular Name, so that we cannot misconstrue what it is. “For this cause I bow my knees to the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named....” Now, really, do you, if you feel that you are called as a True Worshiper, bow your knees to the Name of the Heavenly Father, calling yourself by this one Name, singular? Sorry to say, few people on this earth today know, let alone understand, the importance of the Name of the Heavenly Father, to say nothing of using it, or call themselves by it. The Mighty One which I serve has revealed Himself to His people in His Word as YAHWEH. Our Savior, in John Few people on this earth today know, let alone understand, the importance of the Name of the Heavenly Father, to say nothing of using it, or call themselves by it.

The Mighty One which I serve has revealed Himself to His people in His Word as YAHWEH.

5:43 states that He is come in the Father’s Name. The angelic hosts are called Yahweh in such places as Genesis 18:1-2. The entire spiritual family is named for the Father—called by His Name—the Name that He spoke through His Son, all the way down through history.

When I began my Bible study, I did not realize that the Name of the True Worshipers is given in the New Testament a total of 12 different times. Nine times it is called Assembly of Yahweh (singular), three times it is plural, once with the word Messiah added, while once the True Worshipers are called the Assemblies of Messiah. Knowing that the word ch-rch is not an accurate translation and that the King James translators used the word G-d for the Greek Theos, I would like to point out that in the Greek, Theos is not a name, but it is used as a title, comparable to the Hebrew word Elohim. It should have been translated Mighty Ones. Again we should ask ourselves, who is the Mighty One? The answer which I am proclaiming to the world is that which was proclaimed by the Patriarchs, Prophets, and Apostles all the way down through history, “My Mighty One is Yahweh.” Which Mighty One do you worship? Are you called by His Name? Is it the same Mighty One who was worshiped by the Prophets? Are you a member of the True Worshipers, who are called by the Name of the Father? If you are going to answer all of these questions scripturally, and I mean from the original, inspired Scriptures, then you will of necessity be a member of the Assemblies of Yahweh, just as I am!

A Faith FOR EVERY MILLENNIUM

As the dating of time bridges the gap between the twentieth to the twentieth-first centuries and from the second to the third millennium, C.E. (Common Era), it is important that people of faith look back into the past, reaffirming from history that True Worship has been in evidence here on earth throughout every millennium since the Creation.

Too frequently, people imagine that the Assemblies of Yahweh organization is a recently developed cult; however, such is surely not the case! The Assemblies of Yahweh has existed since the very creation of this earth, and we can prove that this True Faith of the heavens has continued along,

by Elder Jacob O. Meyer

down through the years of every millennium since this earth has been in existence.

“Yahweh, having of old time spoken to the fathers in the prophets by diverse portions and in various manners, has at the end of these days spoken to us in his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds; who being the effulgence of his glory, and the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had made purification of sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on High; having become by so much better than the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they. For to which of the angels said he at any time, You are my Son, this day I have begotten you? and again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?” (Hebrews 1:1-5).

In this scriptural passage, Almighty Yahweh explains that He has sent His Son to speak to the people of this world, and, through this messianic mission, He has divided the ages, or made the worlds. Yahshua is the effulgence (the fullness, greatness, brilliance, radiance) of Yahweh's glory. Yahshua was the very image of His spiritual substance manifested in human form.

Therefore, we must believe that Yahweh is the Father, and, just as Psalm 2 describes, He brought His Son, Yahshua the Messiah, into existence through a spiritual begetting. Since Yahshua the Messiah was the first creation of Almighty Yahweh, Yahshua has the right to be the Head of the Assembly in every age.

“Giving thanks to the Father, who made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light; who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of his love; in whom we have our redemption, the forgiveness of our sins: who is the image of the invisible Yahweh, the firstborn of all creation; for in him were all things created, in the heavens and upon the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through him, and to him; and he is before all things, and in him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the assembly: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.”
(Colossians 1:12-18).

When Adam and Eve were created, as recorded in Genesis chapter 2, Yahweh created a woman as a helper suitable for Adam (Hebrew—'ezer keneged), Yahweh thereupon taught Adam and Eve His exclusive True Worship. Therefore, we read in Genesis 2:16, “And Yahweh Elohim COMMANDED the man....” The term commanded is translated from the Hebrew word tsawah, and it means Yahweh Elohim laid commandments upon the man. This act of commanding Adam implies that He taught man the truth and necessity of obedience to the commandments of Yahweh. The term man used here is Adam. It appears for a period of time as a generic term for all humankind, when the book of Genesis begins, but, then, it becomes a proper noun and is used as the name of the first human male.

Almighty Yahweh had taught man the goodness of His spiritual way of life. Thereupon, Satan the Devil, described as the serpent of Genesis chapter 3, appeared on the scene to teach a converse, a different, doctrine. He planted doubt in Eve's mind when He asked the question, “Has Elohim said, You shall not eat of any tree of the garden?” The woman, Eve, explains that Yahweh has allowed them to eat of every tree of the garden except for the special tree that was situated in the middle of the garden that Elohim had reserved for Himself. Mankind was not to eat from the tree of knowing the good and knowing the evil, or to touch the fruit. Then the Adversary blatantly lied to the woman, “You shall not surely die....” Thereupon, Satan expanded on that lie by asserting, “Elohim knows that in the day you eat of it, then your eyes shall be opened, and you shall be as Elohim, knowing good and evil.” It appears that, forthwith, Chawa, the first woman (Eve), took of the forbidden fruit and gave some to her husband, and they both ate, incurring upon themselves Yahweh's judgment. We notice in Hosea 6:7, “But they like Adam have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.” The prophetic text tells us here that Adam transgressed the Covenant and dealt treacherously against Almighty Yahweh. Eve ate of the forbidden fruit and gave some to her husband, Adam, and he ate, knowing the penalty for sin. See 1 Timothy 2:13-15. Thereupon, Almighty Yahweh expelled Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden, condemning them to a life of hard labor—tilling the soil from which weeds, thorns, and thistles would spring forth—having to earn their bread by the sweat of their face (nose).

In their exile, Adam and Eve soon procreated two sons. The first was Cain, the birth of whom Eve described as having gotten a man with the help of Yahweh. The second was Abel. Abel was a righteous man, always faithful to Yahweh's Covenant. Cain characteristically indulged in trying to take shortcuts to salvation, thereby incurring Yahweh's wrath when he did not offer an animal sacrifice for his sins, but he thought to bring a vegetable offering which could not atone for sin. Fig leaves (vegetable) could not cover the sins of Adam and Eve; therefore, Yahweh had made them coats of skins (Genesis 3:21). When Yahweh was displeased with Cain's offering, but accepted Abel's sacrifice, Cain hated his brother, and he killed Abel. He was, therefore, condemned to be a fugitive and a wanderer throughout the earth.

Yet another son was called Seth, born to Adam and Eve, to replace the spiritual Abel. It was at that time that men began to call PROFANELY upon the Name of Yahweh. From then on, a false religion developed that has competed with the worship of Yahweh down through the ages. Eventually, it swept around the world, always maintaining the character of Baal worship.

However, the descendents of Seth continued faithful in maintaining the Assembly of Yahweh. Many of them also slipped away over time to join the apostate religion of the Cain civilization, however.

A genealogy is found in Genesis chapter 5 that leads up to Noah, who Yahweh declared to be a righteous man and perfect in his generations (Genesis 6:8-9). He found favor, or grace, in the eyes of Yahweh. (Interestingly, when the letters of his name Noach are reversed, they bring out the word Chen, which means favor; or grace. Favor, or grace, is a two-lettered word in the Hebrew text that is exactly the reverse of the letters of Noah's name.)

Noah was spared, and Yahweh gave him the blueprints to build the ark that would save him and his household. No other human being joined this righteous family of eight people in the ark. Almighty Yahweh shut them in after they had gathered the animals—a selection of seven pairs of clean animals and birds and two of the unclean animals and birds—with the feed for their cargo. Therefore, the Assembly of Yahweh, the TRUE WORSHIP,

AT THAT TIME CONSISTED OF ONLY EIGHT MEMBERS, WITH NOAH AS THEIR BISHOP. All the rest of humanity—the descendants of Cain and those who joined him—were destroyed.

Noah's son, Shem, continued the thread of True Worship. He opposed Nimrod, the apostate grandson of Ham. Following the flood, it was Nimrod who inaugurated the Babylonish system with the founding of Babylon and Assyria. Nimrod collected men into these cities and formed them into a subservient organization, since he was a hunter of men. We might conclude that Nimrod was the bishop of Baal worship (apostasy), while Shem served as the Bishop of the True Assembly of Yahweh.

In Genesis chapter 11, another genealogy appears that reveals the lineage of the patriarchs leading up to the patriarch Abraham. Terah procreated Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Terah found himself, with his family, in Ur of Chaldees (Babylon), but he determined to leave Babylon and bring his family along. They migrated toward the west, traveling toward the land of Canaan, but the party stopped short in Haran, about 250 miles short of their goal. It was there that Terah died.

It was while Terah was still alive that Yahweh instructed Abram: “Now Yahweh had said unto Abram, Get you out of your country, and from your kindred, and from your father's house, unto the land that I will show you: and I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great; and you will be a blessing: and I will bless them that bless you, and him that curses you will I curse: and in you shall all families of the earth be blessed. So Abram went, as Yahweh had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.” (Genesis 12:1-4). (Therefore, Stephen is correct when he commented that when Terah was dead, Abraham departed from Haran. Evidently Terah lost his faith, dying spiritually, and remained in Haran with some of his family until his physical death 60 years after Abram departed. See Acts 7:4. They had traveled 75 percent of the way from Babylon to the Promised Land, but that halt cost them the favor of Yahweh!)

Consequently, Abraham became the sole prophet and representative of Almighty Yahweh on this earth. He was actually the Bishop of Yahweh's only True Assembly on earth. How do we prove this? There is no record of any other True Assembly on earth at that time, but Abraham, alone, was the preacher of righteousness. He looked in faith for a city that had foundations, whose builder and maker is Yahweh. “By faith Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to a place which he was to receive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he went. By faith he became a sojourner in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: for he looked for the city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is Yahweh.” (Hebrews 11:8-10). He led Yahweh's Assembly.

Abraham fathered a son, Isaac, who was to become the Bishop of the Assembly upon Abraham's death. Isaac's son, Jacob, after he had been proven and converted, took over the leadership of his grandfather's Assembly upon the death of Isaac. Jacob's

The fleeing Christians who escaped from the wrath of the Roman church and state, found a haven in the mountains and valleys of the north of Italy, and the south of France, in main, although they fled into all nations wherein they could find an entrance and protection from the persecutions of the papacy. Though these Christians were known by many names for various reasons in their new homes, yet the predominating name for them seems to have been "Vaudois," which means "Valley Dwellers." From the fact they dwelt in the valleys of the mountains they received the name "Valley Dwellers," or, in the native tongue, "Vaudois." The Vaudois, known as such by the world, but holding to the true Bible name, were persecuted for the true faith. They observed the seventh day of the week, according to the commandment, immersed for believers baptism, and kept the Passover, or [Yahshua's] Supper, once a year, in the first month.—See pages 348, 349, Persecutions and Atrocities on the Vaudois

From the above testimony we gather that the Vaudois had inhabited these same valleys for over one thousand years, and that they made the claim, which could not be disputed, that they were the remains, the remnant, of the true [Assembly of Yahweh] who had fled into the wilderness. It should be noted also that no history can show these saints to ever have been within the fold of the Catholic church, but had remained separate, letting their light shine, through the darkest hours of the Dark Ages (A. N. Dugger and C. O. Dodd, A History of the True Religion, Israel, second ed., 1968, pp. 101-103.)

twin brother, Esau, was rejected because of his inability to control his fleshly appetites. Let us never forget there was a group of somewhat over a thousand people who accompanied Abraham on his journey to the Holy Land. We can extrapolate this from Genesis 14:14. “And when Abram heard that his brother was taken captive, he lead forth his trained men, born in his house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued as far as Dan.” Genesis 26:14 shows that Isaac also had a great household, and to this we can comment: “a household of faith.”

Jacob went down into Egypt with his family of 66 people, with 4 people (the family of Joseph) already living there. In Egypt, the Israelites multiplied rapidly, and it was there that Jacob died. He instructed his sons to bury him in the Holy Land in the Cave of Machpelah at Hebron, the cave that Abraham had purchased as a burial site for himself and Sarah, and where Isaac and Rebekah also were laid to rest. When Jacob died, his sons, accompanied by a great number of Egyptian representatives of Pharaoh, made a very great lamentation for Jacob, as would befit the Bishop of the True Assembly, as they transported his remains to the Holy Land and buried him alongside his forefathers.

Moses brought the Israelites back to the worship of Yahweh. They had forgotten the Sabbath, and he had to teach them the Sabbath. They had forgotten the Holy Days that had been observed by their forefathers. Moses codified the Law as Almighty Yahweh instructed him. The core commandments were written on two tablets of stone with the remaining commandments written in a book of the Covenant that was placed beside the ark (Exodus 24:4, 32:15-6, and 34:4, and Deuteronomy 31:9, 24-30). Moses served as Yahweh’s chosen prophet, judge, and the representative of Yahweh to His people. See Exodus 18. Therefore, Moses was the Bishop of that era of the Assembly of Yahweh.

Under the priesthood of the Aaronic family, the True Worship continued down through the years after the Exodus. Although there were many instances wherein the majority of the Israelites apostatized and turned in their religious practices toward following the nations surrounding them, nevertheless, the priesthood remained steadfast for the most part. Malachi 2:1-8 shows that the priesthood remained faithful until that time. The message of King Abijah of Judah against King Jeroboam of the house of Israel (the 10 northern tribes) appears in 2 Chronicles 13:4-12, and comprises the truth for every Assembly age.

Spiritual Israel was always called the “ASSEMBLY (OR THE ASSEMBLIES) OF YAHWEH.” Deuteronomy 23:1-8 contains this term six times. It appears also in 1 Chronicles 28:8 and Micah 2:5, among other places. “Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of Yahweh, and in the audience of our Elohim, observe and seek out all the commandments of Yahweh your Elohim; that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you forever.” (1 Chronicles 28:8). “Therefore you shall have no one that shall cast the line by lot in the assembly of Yahweh.” (Micah 2:5). In Hebrew, in the passage of Deuteronomy 23:1-8, the term is qahal Yahweh, but in other places it is called the edath Yahweh (the Hebrew term edah means the witness). See Exodus chapter 38, for example.

While the Hebrew term qahal is similar to the Greek term ecclesia (a group of called-out believers), the term edah stands for those who have made a firm commitment to Yahweh's Covenant, and they witness their Faith to those around them.

During the latter prophetic time period, both the Jewish people and the House of Israel were taken into captivity as punishment for not obeying Yahweh's Law strictly. There the Jews maintained their worship until a group of faithful people returned under Ezra and Nehemiah. These returnees made their Covenant with Yahweh, and He blessed them (Nehemiah 10:28-39). Conversely, the Israelites of the 10 northern tribes lost their identity, because they failed to worship Yahweh, and they neglected to keep His Sabbaths—a sign established by the Almighty to connect Him with His people, Exodus 31:13, 17.

From these faithful Jews under Ezra and Nehemiah came the Messiah. However, as the Messiah's era was about to begin, again the Jews had lapsed into a formal religion which did not speak to the heart. They were using a surrogate name for the Almighty in worship, rather than worshipping Yahweh. Yahshua the Messiah came to restore the True Worship of Almighty Yahweh, and He based His teaching squarely upon the Torah (Law) of Yahweh. He explained it in Matthew 5:17-20. “Think not that I came to destroy the law or the prophets: I came not to destroy, but to fulfil. For truly I say to you, Till heaven and earth pass away, one yothé or one tittle shall in no wise pass away from the law, till all things be accomplished. Whoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whoever shall do and teach them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say to you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.”

Yahshua the Messiah taught obedience to Almighty Yahweh, and He founded an Assembly of True Worshipers. Therefore, He is the Bishop of the Assembly of Yahweh in this era. “For you were going astray like sheep; but are now returned to the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.” (1 Peter 2:25). “And Yahshua answered and said to him, Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah: for flesh and blood has not revealed it to you, but my Father who is in heaven. And I also say to you, that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my assembly; and the gates of the grave shall not prevail against it. I will give to you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” (Matthew 16:17-19).

After the death, resurrection, and ascension of Yahshua the Messiah, the Assembly grew rapidly through the efforts of the 12 Apostles who zealously witnessed their Faith on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2). Thereupon, as their message was willingly received, 3,000 souls were added to the Assembly on that single day (Acts 2:41). A great company of priests also became obedient to the Faith (Acts 6:7).

The Apostolic Assembly continued faithfully observing the Truth

until approximately 75 years after the Messiah's death. Then the apostasy of 2 Thessalonians chapter 2 began to corrupt the spiritual Body. That apostasy ultimately led to the development of the Catholic religion. Apostate religion changed the biblical day of rest and worship—from the seventh-day Sabbath commandment to Sunday—and the feast days of Yahweh were rejected in favor of observing previously pagan holidays.

However, down through the past two millennia, a group of sincere True Worshipers remained faithful. They are mentioned as being the seven Assemblies of Asia in Revelation chapters 2 and 3. These Assemblies had been formed during the time of the Apostles.

When the second Temple was destroyed, Yahshua's True Worshipers moved from Jerusalem to Transjordan in the region of Pella. Many of these Messianic True Worshipers eventually continued to migrate toward the north and took up residence with others of like-precious Faith in those seven Assemblies described in Revelation 2 and 3. Members of those Assemblies continued to migrate northward into the mountains of Europe, into what is known as the Piedmont, following the collapse of the Roman Empire. There, True Worship was maintained in the valleys of the Alps mountains. Some of those groups were known by their leader's names—Waldenses, Albigenses, and other names. Eventually some of these people migrated to the New World. However, not all the descendents of those groups remained faithful in maintaining the Faith taught by Yahshua in Matthew 5:17-20.

The Trap is Set!

Amidst the gathering storm of trouble, signaling the End of the Age, one can find comfort and consolation in a familiar passage of Scripture that is prophetic in nature (although hardly ever understood as such). As the world marches toward its destination with the judgment of Yahweh, troubles and problems are beginning to snowball. Psalm 91 describes some of these troubles and gives us instruction and knowledge so that we may find protection against the fury of the times. It points us toward the only certain protection we may hope to receive that it is in the Name of Almighty Yahweh. This Psalm of hope strengthens our faith and trust in His salvation, because, in reality, there is no other place to turn.

“He that dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall remain under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of Yahweh, He is my refuge and my fortress; My Elohim, in whom I trust. For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler; and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings shall you take refuge: His truth is a shield and a buckler. You shall not be afraid for the terror by night, nor for the arrow that flies by day; For the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor for the destruction that wastes at noonday. A thousand shall fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near you. Only with your eyes shall you behold,

And see the reward of the wicked. For you, O Yahweh, are my refuge! You have made the Most High your habitation;

there shall no evil happen to you, neither shall any plague come near your tent. For he will give his angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways. They shall bear you up in their hands, lest you dash your foot against a stone. You shall tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the serpent shall you trample under foot. Because he has set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he has known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble: I will deliver him, and honor him. With long life will I satisfy him, And show him my salvation.” (Psalm 91).

Notice also how the prophecy of Isaiah 60:2 merges with verses 5-6 of Psalm 91. “For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples; but Yahweh will arise upon you, and his glory shall be seen upon you.”

The Scriptures comfort as they warned of trouble ahead. One of the beautiful characteristics of the prophetic passages of Scripture is that they show the end from the beginning. In this way, those who are sincere in heart will never lose hope as they see the storm of crisis approaching.

As the world sinks ever deeper into the quicksand of problems that beset us today, very few voices are raised against the obvious trends all around us. Signs are evident—but few people have their eyes open to perceive them, while even fewer still are acting on what they see. Almighty Yahweh has commissioned His ministers to be watchmen and warn His people so that they will escape the wrath to come. “For thus has Yahweh said to me, Go, set a watchman; let him declare what he sees.”

(Isaiah 21:6). Our declaration of prophetic insight into the future is quite gloomy. As we look over the trends in the news, we see fulfillment of the predictions of the Four Horsemen of Revelation 6 looming ominously just ahead of us. We cry out in boldness, warning the people of the world with all of the power and authority Almighty Yahweh has placed at our command!

Who will listen to the warning? Will you, beloved reader? We warn the world today in order to save ourselves from the stain of blood of those who are marching steadily toward their punishment for sin. The prophet has recorded the words of Yahweh when He said “So you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. When I say to the wicked, O wicked man, you shall surely die, and you did not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at your hand. Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he turns not from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul. And you, son of man, say to the house of Israel: In this manner you speak, saying, Our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we are rotting away in them; how then can we live? Say to them, As I live, says the Sovereign Yahweh, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn, turn you from your evil ways; for why will you die, O house of Israel?” (Ezekiel 33:7-11).

The news events of today clearly indicate the ills of humanity. As we dig beneath the surface and uncover the roots, we find that the problems confronting us are curable. These ills and problems result from a carnal rebellion against the Laws of Almighty Yahweh, which were given for the good of the human race. Unless people repent of their sins and transgressions against the Most High, one can only conclude that the prophecies of the Bible—predicting severe judgment—will be fulfilled.

We do not enjoy being prophets of doom and gloom, neither can we lead our readers to believe that all is well with the world, when it is not. We would only be too happy to report in our next issue that the world has repented and called upon Almighty Yahweh to forgive their sins, as happened to the Assyrian nation in a time of Jonah. In an effort to begin this sincere repentance around the world, “Cry aloud and spare not....” (Isaiah 58:1). As you read the following Scripture prayerfully, view it from a personal standpoint, and then act on the warning message it proclaims. The reason for publishing this material each month is to awaken those who are truly sincere in seeking to serve the Heavenly Father.

“And this, knowing the season, that already it is time for you to awake out of sleep: for now is salvation nearer to us than when we first believed. The night is far spent, and the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Let us walk becomingly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy. But put on the Sovereign Yahshua the Messiah, and do not make provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts of it.” (Romans 13:11-14).

“The times of ignorance therefore Elohim overlooked; but now he commands men that they should all everywhere repent: because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead.” (Acts 17:30-31).

A World Government is Imminent

A world government is closer than you may think! This world government is inevitable, in order to impose a global policy of control of population, pollution, natural resource, and nuclear control.

In 1976, an article titled “21st Century: a Global Government May Emerge,” was published, written by Isaac Asimov. He wrote. “*There must be... in connection with global problems... global decisions, global laws and global enforcement.” He stated that “World government is very likely a repugnant thought to most Americans who, after all, do not wish to see our nation, built up to unique heights of power and prosperity, submerged in a world organization dominated by foreigners without our tradition of enlightened freedom.”

Can you see how the Great Reset, that is proposed by the World Economic Forum, has been planned for more than a half-century? Just a quick search of YouTube videos featuring Isaac Asimov before his death, clearly show that this world government has been in the planning stage for decades. Using fear regarding starvation because of overpopulation and using fear concerning environmental concerns regarding climate change, the globalists of today are fulfilling these teachings that have been bandied about for decades by college professors! Professor Asimov continued, “We must look to the long run, to resist the establishment of a world government because it would mean a serious sacrifice a living standards on our part, is to court a far greater sacrifice in the chaos to come. We will be scrambling to retain our immediate wealth at the cost of condemning our children and grandchildren to death. On the other hand, to accept a world government, and with it a voluntarily-endured period of hardship (of the kind we would accept in order to win a less important war than that for the survival of civilization) will make possible a REORGANIZATION OF MAN-

KIND IN THE 21ST CENTURY, WHICH WILL EVENTUALLY ENSURE A FINAL GLOBAL PROSPERITY that will be better than we have now for ourselves—and for our descendants.”

How obvious it is that many today are seemingly threatening us with extinction, unless we fall immediately into line in forming a world government! How could a world government be truly beneficial, when the Marxist Utopia has never been realized? EVERY TIME COMMUNISM, OR PROGRESSIVE SOCIALISM, HAS BEEN TRIED, IT HAS FAILED MISERABLY, at the cost of millions of human lives and horrible human suffering. However, how many people would be willing to place themselves under the domination of another individual, who, perhaps, would live thousands of miles away and would not be familiar with the problems and manners of the local area? The implications presented by the establishment of such a world government are simply staggering, and it is an absolute certainty that those who advocate it have not thought it through completely. The idea of a world government is the brainchild of a small group of people who have fallen in love with the idea and fail to accept any logical criticism of it. Those who suggest such a government are POWER HUNGRY!

A government that exists merely for the benefit of the governing class is a DICTATORSHIP! The people involved just want to tell others what to do! Along with the control, will be an invasion of privacy that our American government will use against its citizens, using all of the technology that has been developed over the past century.

Will a world government be established in our time? Your Bible

We cannot please Almighty Yahweh if we accept the Mark of the Beast. We will be rejecting the Mark of Yahweh (which is Commandment-keeping).

foretells that end-time prophecy will not be fulfilled unless such a government comes into existence. For just a very brief time, it will rule, and it will CONTROL each one of its subjects so ABSOLUTELY that it will even be responsible for the things they buy and sell. “And he causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given to them a mark on their right hand, or on their forehead; and that no man should be able to buy or to sell, except he that has the mark, even the name of the beast, or the number of his name.” (Revelation 13:16-17). In this predicted system, EACH PERSON WILL BE A NUMBER, and, thereby, each person can be REGULATED INDIVIDUALLY through the use of computers. Unless each individual subject of this Beast submits to the wishes of the government, he will suffer by not having the opportunity to buy or sell. Those who are UNPREPARED will undoubtedly STARVE to death, unless they support this government. Each person will be REGULATED in how he earns his livelihood, because the subjects of the Beast will be forced into the position of SLAVERY.

Why do contemporary liberals insist on the establishment of a world government? Obviously, one of the main reasons why a certain group of people desire to establish a world government is to firmly CONTROL ALL OF THE NATIONS of the world. In other words, a small group of people at the very top will be TOTAL MASTERS of the world.

Just after the flood, in ancient Babylon, such a world government was begun. Nimrod was determined to build a kingdom in the world of his time and unite all cities and nations under his leadership. Yahweh looked down on this plot with disdain. He sent His representatives down to the earth to confuse the languages, and the plot was destroyed at its inception. Indeed, in these end times, the modern world government to be established will rule for 3 and one-half years. Once again, the representative of Yahweh—Yahshua the Messiah—will return from heaven and establish a government that will truly be a world-ruling government. But it will be the government of the Heavenly Father Yahweh, and He will rule righteously. Today, no one can trust the unconverted carnal natures of men to govern righteously. The Kingdom of Yahweh will rule the earth for the benefit of mankind, offering blessing and prosperity to replace the problems of our time that are caused by the GREED and LUST of unconverted human minds.

Will a world government be established? Mankind will indeed establish a world government in the last days at the close of the age. Already, we have moved far along in the establishment of the system of world government. The United Nations, today, stands as a colossal failure, although it is designed as a world ruling organization of nations. Shall we submit to yet another failure to achieve world government? Apparently the world wishes to make yet another try at human government without Yahweh and His Holy Spirit to guide them, and this time it will fail, as have previous attempts. Let us, as True Worshipers, avoid getting involved in this new world government scheme. We cannot please Almighty Yahweh if we accept the Mark of the Beast. We will be rejecting the Mark of Yahweh (which is Commandment-keeping). Anyone who accepts the Mark of the Beast will pay the price of their personal salvation at the hands of a wrathful Mighty One.

Lockdowns Loom

During the Covid 19 lockdowns, it was mentioned that plans for future lockdowns because of climate change concerns were being considered. Seeing the skies clear up in areas of the world that are prone to smog and pollution (such as China and India) gave globalists gleeful anticipation that they could use these newfound powers to enforce their climate agenda upon the whole world. The city of Oxford in Oxfordshire are in the United Kingdom (UK) has proposed a plan to reduce journeys that they deem unnecessary. A 15-minute city has been proposed, that would limit travel to what most people could walk in a 15-minute period. Supported by the UN, and the World Economic Forum, the “15-minute city” is a concept, which applies to “having all necessary amenities within a short walk, bike ride, or public transit trip of one’s home.” According to the World Economic Forum website, “Covid 19 may now be flipping this on its head, which is why the 15 minute city concept is taking hold in the way that it would not have before the pandemic ... the 15 minute city puts home at the center of urban spatial relationships. As climate change and global conflict cause shocks and stresses at faster intervals and increasing severity, the 15-minute city will become even more critical.”

Do you remember the lockdowns all around the world, when people were arrested for being outside, or too far from their home? In Australia, people were arrested and fined for BEING OUTSIDE TO VIEW THE SUNSET! In the UK, someone was fined because they traveled past a supermarket to purchase milk directly from a farmer. In China, people were taken into custody for being out of their home, or drones with loudspeakers ordering the errant citizens back to their dwellings. Dystopia (the opposite of utopia) is just around the corner and all it will take will be a manufactured crisis to implement these dystopian measures.

Digital Currency Is Coming

On March 9, 2022, President Biden, by Executive Order, ordered the exploration of a U. S. Central Bank digital currency (CBDC). The order directed the U. S. government to assess the technological infrastructure and capacity needs for a potential United States CBDC, including development of a plan for broader, U. S. Government action in support of their work. The effort prioritizes U. S. participation in multi-country experimentation and ensured U.S. leadership internationally to promote CBDC development.

According to the White House, more than 100 countries are exploring or piloting Central Bank Digital Currencies, a digital form of a country's sovereign currency. In September, the White House further clarified President Biden: "A 'digital dollar' may seem far-fetched, but modern technology could make it a real possibility. A United States Central Bank digital currency (CBDC) would be a digital form of the US dollar." The U. S. government promises that the "CBDC should expand equitable access to the financial system, preserve the role of physical cash, and ONLY COLLECT DATA THAT IS PHYSICALLY NECESSARY." Should we trust that the U. S. government will not cross this line and restrain itself from tyranny? Do you remember that, during the Great Depression, all Americans were ordered to turn in their gold dollars for paper currency? In the case of a financial crash, could we not see the same thing occur with physical cash, forcing everyone to transact all business with digital dollar?

"Should a CBDC replace hard currency altogether, the government would be able to TRACK EVERY PURCHASE OR TRANSACTION made by the public. The Bank of England has also admitted that a digital pound could be 'programmable' meaning that the government could potentially add mechanisms to prevent people from spending their own money on things the State DISAPPROVES. This has led to concerns that Western governments could implement a system akin to the SOCIAL CREDIT SCORE in Communist China, which has already been used to BLACKLIST millions of citizens from traveling, including those who DISSENTED against the authoritarian rule of Chairman Xi Jinping," according to Breitbart (emphasis ours).

"Central Bank Digital Currencies are also heavily supported by the globalist Davos-based World Economic Forum (WEF), which listed it among the technologies that will CHANGE THE WORLD BY 2027! The WEF said that Central Bank Digital Currencies will 'revolutionize the financial system' through 'increasing financial inclusion and improving the lives of billions of people globally by providing them access to cheap and affordable financial services,' according to Kurt Zindulka at Breitbart.

Social Credit Score Is Here

Banks in Canada and Australia have begun offering a credit card that tracks your carbon footprint. Soon, we fear, this will become commonplace. Business has begun to implement ESG (Environmental Social Governance) scores to many business transactions, rewarding those who follow the ACCEPTED PRACTICES OF POPULAR CLIMATE AGENDA. "Even if you don't own an investment account, ESG is hitting your pocketbook. As we head into winter, household energy prices are set to hit it 10-year high, causing the average American family $1200, according to a report from the National Energy Assistance Directors Association. The weaponization of financial regulation coupled with Wall Street's obsession with ESG has redirected capital away from American energy projects. As a result, investment in oil and gas exploration and production in 2021 was 25% lower than 2019 levels. In less than two years we have moved from a position of energy dominance to energy depletion, precisely because of the radical climate finance agenda," writes Andy Barr and Allison Ball in Real Clear Politics.

Government Corruption

Almighty Yahweh has warned that all of those in position of government cannot be a respecter of persons. "Judges and officers shall you make yourselves in all your gates, which Yahweh your Elohim gives you, according to your tribes; and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. You shall not wrest justice: you shall not respect persons; neither shall you take a bribe; for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise, and perverts the words of the righteous. That which is altogether just shall you follow, that you may live, and inherit the land which Yahweh your Elohim is giving you." (Deuteronomy 16:18-20).

The corruption in politics that has surfaced during the past few years REVEALS THAT WE ARE ONLY SEEING THE TIP OF THE ICEBERG! Were we to investigate these government agencies, we would be simply ASTOUNDED

TRUE HISTORY

Most people have a favorite subject while they are attending school. Occasionally, this academic fascination will remain with them throughout their lives. In my case, for example, my favorite academic subject happened to be history, as my library shelves even today reveal. At one time, I was absorbed rather deeply in the study of the Civil War, especially the Battle of Gettysburg, since the century anniversary of the battle occurred in 1963. Perhaps another reason was because this renowned battlefield is located not very far from my home, and a trip there is made rather easily in just over an hour.

However, as time went by, I became absorbed in a study of a much greater history within the Bible. The term history has been interpreted as merely meaning his-story. When one reads books which were compiled by the great historians of the academic world, you are reading their personal versions of the occurrences. The Bible is different. It comprises the account of the history of the world from the perspective of its actual Creator.

One of the most outstanding proofs that the Bible is true is the accuracy with which it describes events that took place in antiquity. Additionally, many of the nations, tribes, and events to which it refers, prophetically, were never witnessed by the authors of the various books of the Bible, because the incidents occurred long after they lived, and, yet, the incidents are described with unerring accuracy.

Occasionally, you may hear historians declare that the Bible is in error about a certain detail, when, in fact, later the biblical record is proven to be quite factual, while the conclusion of the historian is actually proved to be in error. Usually the historian has failed to analyze all the facts, or has drawn a premature conclusion, based upon a mere fraction of the evidence which is pertinent to the account.

In the Bible appears the account of the Creation of this universe, explaining how it all took place and just what it all means. After we have proved that there really is an Almighty Creator being—that He is real and exists—then we must stand ready to allow His Word to speak for Him. We cannot impose our own minds upon the Scriptures, or we will be standing at diametrical opposites to our Father in Heaven. In plain terms, we cannot put words in His mouth. If the creation account in the Bible is true and accurate so that we may rely upon it, then we must acknowledge also that the Name of our Heavenly Father is a most integral part of that supernatural knowledge which has been passed down to us.

In the Old Testament, the basis for our Faith and bedrock foundation on which to build our spiritual practices, we find definite statements about the Name of our Father in Heaven. Perhaps the most specific statement in the entire Bible concerning the Name of our Father in Heaven is found in Isaiah 42:8, “I am Yahweh, that is my name; and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to carved images.” You will never find an absolute statement such as this in the New Testament. The New Testament does not contain an instance in which the Almighty directly informs us of His Name and declares: “This is my name!” Conversely, you do find numerous such statements in the Old Testament, and several of these (such as Joel 2:32) are quoted in the New Testament.

Please turn also to Hosea 12:5 where we read, “Even Yahweh, the Elohim of hosts; Yahweh is his memorial name.” Again, we find a very definite statement, and this comes directly from the lips of Yahweh, our Father in Heaven, and by His inspiration.

In Exodus chapter 34, we find that Moses has arrived on the top of Mount Sinai with the two tables of stone which he has carved and on which Yahweh, our Father in Heaven, was to write His Law for a second time, after Moses had broken the first two tablets following Israel’s falling into sin. Please follow me as I read verses 4 to 9. “And he hewed two tables of stone like the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up to mount Sinai, as Yahweh had commanded him, and took in his hand two tables of stone. And Yahweh descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of Yahweh. And Yahweh passed by before him, and proclaimed, Yahweh, Yahweh, an El merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in goodness and truth; keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin; and that will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children’s children, to the third and the fourth generation. And Moses hurried, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped. And he said, If now I have found favor in your sight, O Sovereign, let the king, I pray you, go among us; for it is a stiff-necked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance.”

Here we encounter another instance in which our Heavenly Father proclaimed His Name for all to hear. Certainly Moses heard the Sacred Name being expressed, because he, himself, repeats it. Few people seem to realize the importance of listening when our Father in Heaven speaks through His Word. Most of our modern concepts of religion are based on some human ideas. If you ever want to read opinionated writings, all you have to do is to pick up a theology textbook. At no time can man ever justify interpreting the Bible through his own ideas, but we must always allow our Father in Heaven to make things clear through the careful study of His Word, which also declares to us His revealed Name. For those who know something of history, you will perhaps recall a reference to the Moabite stone which was discovered in Dibon, Jordan, in 1868 by F. Klein. This stone was inscribed by King Mesha of the Moabites. Since the Moabites were the descendants of Lot, the language of the stone is similar to Hebrew. There is little Moabite literature remaining, so this Moabite stone became of particular interest to archeological and Bible students. The stone was written originally to celebrate a victory by Mesha over the Israelites. As a matter of fact, there is a record in the Bible of this Moabite king, and it corresponds to what archeology has discovered. Please turn to 2 Kings 3:4-27. On this historical document, which has spanned the ages, we find the

The Moabite Stone

Composed by Mesha, king of the Moabites, this stone was written to chronicle his reputed victory over Israel. In the old Semitic alphabet, the Name of Yahweh appears in the text of this chronicle.

sacred Name of our Father in Heaven. The reason why this is so important is that some Bible scholars would have us believe that no one except the Israelites knew and used the sacred Name of our Father in Heaven. This is an erroneous conclusion, since most of the pagan mythological religions are traceable to biblical truth with a generous admixture of human opinion and error. Certainly Moses heard the sacred Name being expressed because he himself repeats it.

The Moabite Stone was also found to contain a kernel of Scripture that had become so saturated with error, it was almost completely unrecognizable. However, the watermark of paganism which is placed on worldly religions is that the names of their mighty ones, and other names and titles containing sacred significance, often have a meaning in the Hebrew language.

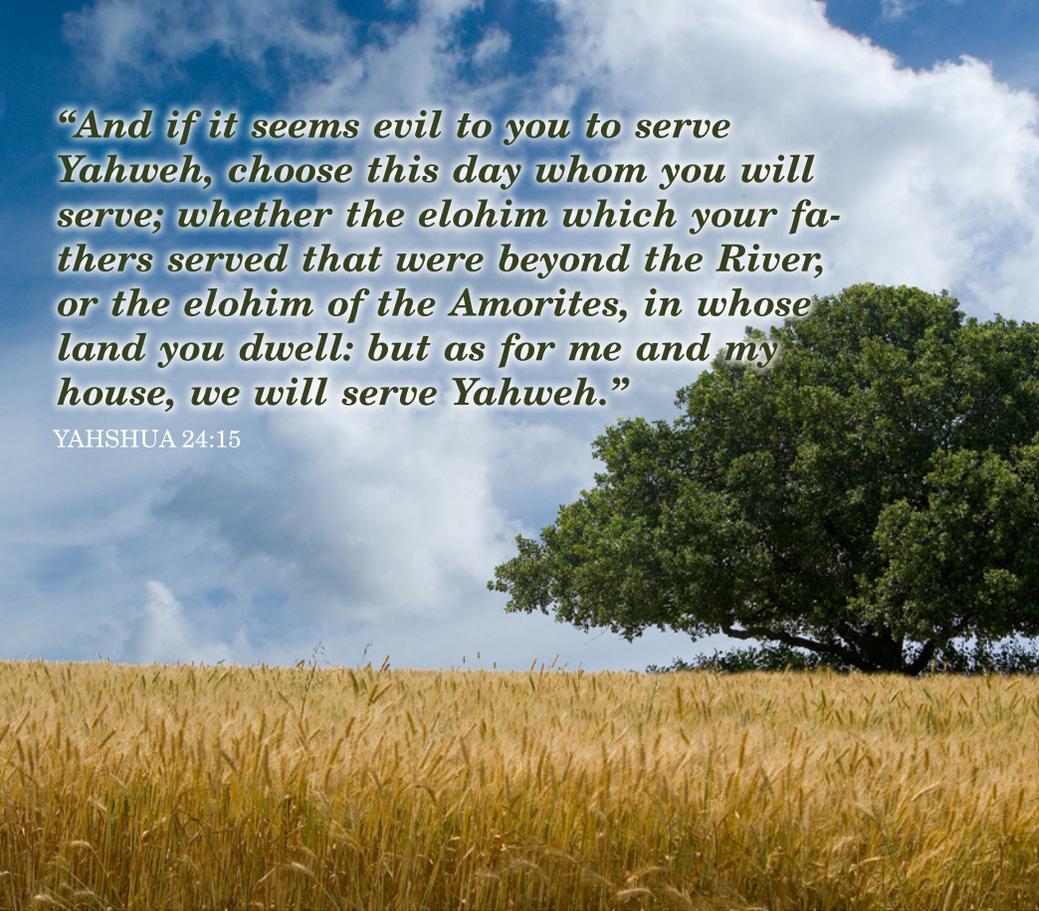

As was mentioned, on this Moabite stone we find the Name of our Father in Heaven. If you can obtain a translation, do so and read this document. Many encyclopedias contain a copy of a translation. In line 17, we find, “And I took from there the vessels of Yahweh and dragged them before Chemosh.” This means that King Mesha took the vessels which were used in Israel’s worship and took them back to Moab for the worship of His deity. He describes his bloody slaughter of human beings which he dedicated to Ishtar-Chemosh, his deity, and the sacrifice of he goats, signifying that his deity was stronger than the Mighty One of the Hebrews. The scriptural account in 2 Kings chapter 3 precedes the account of the Moabite stone and the account of Mesha.

It is this same King Mesha who offered his own son in sacrifice upon the wall of his capital city to put serious determination in his people to fight Israel.

In the study of ancient languages, new meaning (and perhaps better sense) can often be derived from different words by interchanging vowels. Many ancient languages were written in a consonantal alphabet, with the vowels supplied and with only occasional letters appearing as vowels.

“And if it seems evil to you to serve Yahweh, choose this day whom you will serve; whether the elohim which your fathers served that were beyond the River, or the elohim of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve Yahweh.”

YAHSHUA 24:15

For instance, when we study the history of ancient Israel we learn that the capital city of the ten northern tribes was Samaria. In Hebrew, the same letter is used for both the “s” and the “sh.” Now if we make the “S” of Samaria into an “Sh,” we find that this becomes Shemaria and may have some reference to the term name (however, this should only be viewed as a suggestion).

Most readers who have studied ancient history will recall that waves of barbarians swept across Europe and demolished the mighty Roman Empire from the north. The term barbarians could mean bearded Aryans. The ancient name for China is Cathay, which we recognize as the construct form of the Hebrew name Kittim.

In the study of European history, you will find many references to True Worship which have been mixed with generous portions of human opinion and interpretation. Some time ago, the National Geographic magazine published an article on the Vikings. As I read the article, I could visualize the worship of the Vikings which was described in the article and recognize it as ancient baal worship. Worshipping in a grove of trees on a hilltop, making human sacrifices, etc., all are characteristic hallmarks of the worship of baal.

The Norwegian religion of ancient times is saturated with Hebrew terms which have come to be worshiped as deities. For instance, Norse religion explains that from a dead giant named Wymer, the world was created and that he was killed by three treacherous enemies. The word Wymer represents the Hebrew term wyomer, which means and he said. Now read the first chapter of Genesis, and you will find that this is exactly what is recorded of the Almighty as He was creating this universe. Wyomer means and he said, referring also to the Word of John chapter 1.

If you want to investigate and look for the Truth of the Word of Yahweh, you will find it. It is obvious in all that we see in this world, just like the Apostle Paul says in Romans chapter 1. However, most people are prejudiced in favor of the pseudo-intellectual rationalization which has corrupted most of modern education. Nevertheless, if you look at history with the cold eye of reason and compare it to the Bible, you will learn that the Bible is indeed true and can be trusted as authentic.

Now let’s consider another history—the true history—Yahweh’s story of His Name and what it is. When our Heavenly Father speaks to us, it is in the Old Testament Scriptures. The voice that spoke was an audible voice, a voice Israel could hear and understand, because it spoke their language. The first commandment in Exodus 20:2-3 reads, “I am Yahweh your Elohim, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. You shall have no other elohim before me.” This sacred Name was the motivating force in Israel’s worship for many years, even down to the Savior’s era.

In these last days, each one of the people of our Heavenly Father should show the same humble dedication to Him which was exhibited by Yahshua (Joshua) in chapter 24:15 of his book, “And if it seems evil to you to serve Yahweh, choose this day whom you will serve; whether the elohim which your fathers served that were beyond the River, or the elohim of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve Yahweh.”

I have made this important choice. How about you?

“But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of Yahweh.” (Matthew 4:4). SNB

THE TRAP IS SET!

at what we would discover. Our governments are run mostly by UNCONVERTED people who too frequently work for their OWN INTERESTS. They are following the spirit of the world, and the ruler of the governments of this world. “And, you masters, do the same things to them, and forbear threatening: knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and THERE IS NO RESPECT OF PERSONS with him. Finally, be strong in Yahweh, and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of Yahweh, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against SPIRITUAL WICKEDNESS IN HIGH PLACES. Therefore take up the whole armor of Yahweh, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having shod your feet with the preparation of the evangel of peace; and with all taking up the shield of faith, with which you shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of Yahweh.” (Ephesians 6:9-17).

We must remember that in the last days, “But evil men and imposters shall become worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.” (2 Timothy 3:13). The only thing that will change this situation will be the Second Coming of Yahshua the Messiah, to establish the Kingdom of Yahweh on this earth. As we pray “Your kingdom come. Your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth.” (Matthew 6:10). It is only then that we may have total confidence in government officials to do the job they have been given.

Hope Is Ahead

Many times, our attitude turns pessimistic after reading some of the gloom reports that appear in Prophetic Trends. However, let us never lose sight of the fact that we look for the glorious appearing of our Redeemer and Savior, Yahshua the Messiah, who will usher in the wonderful Kingdom of Yahweh on this earth. How we long for the day when ALL SORROW AND GRIEF WILL BE ENDED! What a happy time it will be when the government of Almighty Yahweh rules this earth and all people are forced to SUBMIT TO HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS! One cannot help but remember the Bible prophecies that point toward the time when Eden will be restored. “For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the FORMER THINGS shall not be REMEMBERED, NOR COME INTO MIND. But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and there shall be heard in her no more the voice of weeping and the voice of crying. There shall be no more there an infant of days, nor an old man that has not filled his days; for the child shall die a hundred years old, and the sinner being a hundred years old shall be cursed. And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree shall be the days of my people, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for calamity; for they are the seed of the blessed of Yahweh, and their offspring with them. And it shall come to pass that, before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the ox; and dust shall be the serpent’s food. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, says Yahweh.” (Isaiah 65:17-25).

Renew your inspiration that is found in the inspired Word of Yahweh. What a wonderful time that will be! Will you be there to participate in reshaping this world according to the plan of Yahweh after He has destroyed this wicked system of things? If you hope to be one of the blessed people of Yahweh, you must begin to PREPARE NOW. You must learn—so that you can qualify to become one of the very family of Elohim. Your attitude must be changed. Your heart and mind must be brought into harmony with the Way of Yahweh. Have you begun your preparations? If not, why not begin today? ^{SNB} wilderness faithfully retain the characteristics described in Revelation 12:17 and 14:12. “And the dragon became exceedingly angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the remnant of her seed, that keep the commandments of Yahweh, and hold the testimony of Yahshua.” “Here is the patience of the saints; They that keep the commandments of Yahweh, and the faith of Yahshua.”

It is the opinion of the author that the Reformation did not include these people living outside of the popular religious system, who comprised the faithful remnants of the Apostolic Assembly. The Reformation was active in Europe among people who had drifted into popular religion. They became convicted of the need to change as they read and studied the Sacred Scriptures. Some of these people migrated to the New World and joined with the remnants of the Apostolic Assembly. However, the True Worship over the years remained small, and it never gained the status of an organized group until three decades ago.

The Assemblies of Yahweh organization was begun from a little mustard seed when the author was inspired under the direction of the Holy Spirit to understand that, if the True Worship was ever to be reestablished, it had to begin with him. Consequently, he made a stand for Truth and began to publish and broadcast the whole counsel of the Word of Yahweh as Yahweh gave Him the means to do so. It was in 1966 that The Sacred Name Broadcast was inaugurated on radio. It was first heard on radio station WBMD, Baltimore, Maryland, February 5, 1966. Thereafter, as more people responded to the message, in July, 1969, the organization, Assemblies of Yahweh, came into being, and it was incorporated in the courts of Berks County in Pennsylvania. That was exactly 100-19-year-time cycles after the Apostolic Assembly had fled from Jerusalem just before the Roman armies invaded in 70 C.E.

From the Sacred Scriptures, we have traced the thread of True Worship (small though it was at times), coming down through the centuries and millennia as the Bible records it, all the way from the time of Creation 6,000 years ago.

In 1971, Almighty Yahweh and His Son, Yahshua the Messiah, led this ministry to purchase the property now in use as offices, printing department, educational facilities, and meeting hall, among other uses. The first property had been built in a form of a Hebrew daleth—the Hebrew letter D—that symbolizes an open door. An excellent version of the Bible was prepared and published in 1981, entitled, The Sacred Scriptures, Bethel Edition. At Bethel in the early 1980s, a shortwave radio station was constructed that has been instrumental in our endeavor to fulfill the Great Commission. On June 20, 2022, WMLK returned to the airwaves with daily broadcasting with the powerful voice of the new Ampegon 300,000 watt transmitters. The Name of Yahweh and His Son, our Savior Yahshua the Messiah, are being heralded to the nations. Recently, the addition of the DRM digital modulation unit will allow WMLK to broadcast in either analogue or digital modulation. “And these good tidings of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations; and then shall the end come.” (Matthew 24:14).

The Assemblies of Yahweh membership is earnestly preparing to have a part in the forthcoming SEVENTH MILLENNIUM. This will be the Kingdom of Yahweh that will be established on this earth when Yahshua the Messiah returns. At that time, the Messianic True Worship will become the universal religion practiced by all the inhabitants of the world. The Assemblies of Yahweh True Worship will be enforced worldwide by Yahshua the Messiah, as described in Isaiah 11:9. “For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of Yahweh, as the waters cover the sea.” (Habakkuk 2:14).

There is yet one millennial age to be lived—it is the Kingdom of Yahweh when Yahshua the Messiah returns to establish Yahweh’s Kingdom on this earth. Then, True Worship will be enforced, and Yahshua the Messiah will tolerate no more sin. Sinners will be cast into Gehenna fire (Isaiah 66:23-24). Where will you spend the next millennium—and eternity? We hope you determine now to be with the family of Yahweh and Yahshua the Messiah—the Assemblies of Yahweh—in Yahweh’s Kingdom age. S_NB
