Our Cover:

A date palm on the Tel of Megiddo is our cover this month. Like a wildflower in a war zone, these palms grow tall on the layered ruins of ancient civilizations.

Megiddo has had a strategic position through the centuries, located on the major north/south route. Because of this, Megiddo became a chariot city, which was an essential part of Solomon's building projects, along with Hazor and Gezer.

Date palm trees from Israel produce an abundance of dates and were renowned for their taste. As worshipers of Yahweh and disciples of Yahshua the Messiah, we must also bear fruit. "In this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so shall you be my disciples." (John 15:8).

We must walk worthily of Yahshua the Messiah each day with all lowliness and meekness, bearing the fruits of good works. "To walk worthily of Yahshua to all pleasing, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of Yahweh; strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, to all patience and long-suffering with joy...." (Colossians 1:10-11).

"Bearing fruit and increasing..." (Colossians 1:6) must be our goal in life—bringing forth fruits worthy of repentance—the fruits of Yahweh's Holy Spirit.

Sharing THE Gift OF TRUTH

by Elder Jacob O. Meyer

“For Yahweh so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes on him should not perish, but have eternal life.”
(John 3:16).

Yahweh’s unselfish act in giving His Son, Yahshua, as the sacrifice for the sins of the world comprises a monumental blessing that cannot be valued. The paradoxical enigma is that people, each winter, give presents to each other, when, in fact, IF they truly appreciated Yahweh’s gift to the world, they should be giving gifts to HIM!

Most worldly, unconverted people resent giving contributions to religious organizations. To justify their selfishness, they assert that “all the organization wants is their money.” Some believe that by giving a dollar or two, here or there, they are adequately fulfilling their obligations to the Almighty. People with an unconverted attitude don’t seem to value the knowledge they receive, nor do they view it as the means whereby they may receive eternal life. They neglect to see the sacrifice that goes into freely sending out the Word of life.

The Apostle Paul encountered a similar, stingy attitude among the members of the Corinthian Assembly. The members seemed to imagine that they should not financially support Paul’s missionary endeavors. In 1 Corinthians 9, he had to point out strongly to them that one does not labor without hope of some return. He quotes Deuteronomy 25:4 which says, “You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out the grain.” Paul emphasizes in 1 Corinthians 9:11, “If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great matter if we shall reap your carnal things?”

We must recall from Acts 20:33-35 how Paul described his own attitude regarding the contributions he received. He was willing to give—even more than give, to sacrifice his entire life if need be—for the benefit of those who have an interest in spiritual things and to provide them with an opportunity to hear the Word of Yahweh and be saved.

“I coveted no man’s silver, or gold, or apparel. You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my necessities, and to them that were with me. In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Master Yahshua, that he himself said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.”

What is your personal attitude toward giving?

Yahshua our Messiah taught that it is more blessed to give than to receive. But most people would much rather receive than give! They even expect people to give to them constantly. Their motto is, “What’s yours is mine if I can get it; what’s mine is mine if I can keep it.” The attitude of most Americans is to get something for nothing, or to take something from someone else—obviously an unconverted concept. Giving and generosity today are much neglected.

Yahshua gave Himself totally in sacrifice to the people of the world while He was here on this earth. He said, “Give, and it shall be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, shall they give into your bosom. For with what measure you measure it shall be measured to you again.” (Luke 6:38). Perhaps this is the reason why the spiritual lives of people today are so obviously depleted. Yahshua personified sacrificial giving by offering His life for the sins of the world. Conversely, people today are very self-centered, thinking only of their own advancement. Where would we be if Yahshua had not sacrificed Himself for the sins of the world?

John 3:16 tells us that Yahweh loved the world (His creation) and GAVE His Son to be our Savior, so that we would not have to perish for our sins, but have eternal life.

The attitude of the truly converted person is to give generously to Almighty Yahweh so others may hear this Truth. You will notice from Leviticus 27:30-33 that Almighty Yahweh has reserved the first tenth of the produce of our fields for Himself. This does not necessarily refer exclusively to agriculture, as some misguided individuals would have you believe. People work in many types of fields of endeavor. Some people are in the field of teaching. Another’s field is manufacturing, or business management, construction, or sales. Each person has chosen a field of occupation in which he la-

Give That Others May Learn!

The Sacred Name Broadcaster that you are holding in your hands has never had a subscription price. Published for the past thirty-nine years, some subscribers have received this magazine for a decade or more, yet have never contributed anything towards its publication—not even anything to pay the postage.

Yet, it is a first-class magazine that most subscribers value very highly! No, we are not rich so that we can afford luxury, nor are we funded by a rich corporation. This ministry has always been a labor of love and sacrifice. Frequently, we literally exist on what other larger organizations waste. Someone sent in their tithes and offerings so that we might give you a gift of knowledge that (if followed) will lead you to eternal salvation.

We hope to place the sound doctrines we teach, beginning with the Sacred Name message, in the hands of every person on earth who desires to receive it. Consequently, since someone already paid for your subscription, will you bless someone else by helping to place The Sacred Name Broadcaster in their hands? Both they—and we—will greatly appreciate your sincerity, and Almighty Yahweh will reward you in His Kingdom Age, when Yahshua the Messiah returns.

bors to produce his daily livelihood. Therefore, all of us are obligated to return to our Heavenly Father a tenth of everything we produce, because Yahweh has reserved a rental fee to be paid by His human creation for using this earth, which He actually owns since He created it. See Leviticus 25:23-24.

Almighty Yahweh Himself receives all of the tithes and offerings contributed to the Assemblies of Yahweh. Every contribution is placed in a bank account bearing the Name of Almighty Yahweh. From this bank account, Yahweh's stewards pay the expenses of this ministry.

Radio and television time on commercial stations for airing The Sacred Name Broadcast and The Sacred Name Telecast is quite costly. Publishing The Sacred Name Broadcaster magazine monthly and the numerous other items of literature we have available is quite costly. Postage costs have escalated sharply over the past decades. Paying the telephone bills and other utilities necessary to keep the ministry functioning becomes more costly with each passing day. Expenses related to ministerial trips continue to grow as representatives are sent around the world. Frequently, we use the telephone for counseling, or advising people; but, we never charge for this service, as do professional counselors. Our goal is to make life more pleasant for those who experience problems, by showing them the scriptural solutions to their problems, which will be applied in Yahweh's coming new Kingdom and encouraging everyone to live a moral, obedient life. But we also have other out-of-the-pocket expenses to meet.

Many different services—that are offered free by the Assemblies of Yahweh—are, in fact, not free! For example, our literature is offered free of charge, when someone actually has to pay to produce it. Even if you are a casual reader of our materials, you benefit as you read in this publication the strong doctrines taught by the Bible. Do you ever contemplate offering support to Yahweh's ministry? Perhaps you fail to express your appreciation to Yahweh for His blessings, just as did the lepers who failed to thank Yahshua after He healed them (Luke 17:12-19).

Almighty Yahweh has laid down a practical plan to finance His ministry. It is financed through the freely given tithes and offerings of all those who appreciate the Truth of Yahweh. He has reserved the tithe of all the increase of the earth to proclaim His message of salvation, so that all people can have the knowledge to be saved. If we refuse to obey this commandment, we are sinning. We are spurning His kindness in offering His Truth to us, an insult that will bring down the wrath of Yahweh upon us.

In the Assemblies of Yahweh at Bethel, Pennsylvania, you will find rich nourishment for your spiritual life. All around in the religious world is a dearth of hearing the Word of Yahweh. You have probably, on frequent occasions, learned much new Truth, or have been encouraged along the difficult areas in your life, by the things you have read in our publications. Or you may have heard The Sacred Name Broadcast, which regularly teaches Yahweh's Truth over the air. Perhaps you are a daily listener to Radio WMLK. The Sacred Name Telecast can be seen each week on television. It is our pleasure to serve the brethren. All of us here at the Home Offices of the Assemblies of Yahweh believe in sacrificing. Freely we give, because Almighty Yahweh has generously bestowed upon us His Truth. There is food in the house of Elohim (Bethel), because someone gives to make that spiritual nourishment available.

Please note carefully the following scriptural passage: "Will a man rob Elohim? Yet you rob me. But you say, In what have we robbed you? In tithes and offerings. You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation. Bring the whole tithe into the store-house, that there may be food in my house, and prove me now with this, says Yahweh of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before the time in the field, says Yahweh of hosts. And all nations shall call you happy; for you shall be a delightful land, says Yahweh of hosts." (Malachi 3:8-12). How will you respond to this instruction? Will you obey, or rebel?

We must be careful not to rob Yahweh of His rightful, honorable recognition. If all those who love and appreciate Yahweh's Truth would give generously, abundant spiritual food will always be available in the house of Elohim (Bethel). If we do not give, the world will starve spiritually, because we have closed our hand when it was in our power to do good.

"Behold, the days come, says the Sovereign Yahweh, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of Yahweh. And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of Yahweh, and shall not find it. In that day shall the fair virgins and the young men faint for thirst. They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, As your mighty one, O Dan, lives; and, As the way of Beer-sheba lives; they shall fall, and never rise up again." (Amos 8:11-14).

Ancient Israel experienced a similar situation. When no central storehouse was in effect, the priesthood of Yahweh (His ministry) suffered. King Hezekiah acted decisively when he encountered this need.

"Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the law of Yahweh. And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel gave in abundance the first-fruits of grain, new wine, and oil and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things they brought in abundantly. And the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of dedicated things which were consecrated to Yahweh their Elohim, and laid them by heaps. In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed Yahweh, and his people Israel. Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. And Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, Since the people began to bring the ablations into the house of Yahweh, we have eaten and had enough, and have left plenty: for Yahweh has blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store. Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of Yahweh; and they prepared them. And they brought in the ablations and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: and over them Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was second.” (2 Chronicles 31:4-12).

The ministry of Yahweh’s Word in the Temple of ancient Israel was well supplied when Hezekiah created a central storehouse to collect all the tithes and offerings in one place. The ministry had plenty of resources to do Yahweh’s Work and the Most High blessed Israel.

A very moving incident occurred when Israel came out of Egypt and Almighty Yahweh instructed them to build His Tabernacle of witness in the wilderness. When Moses came down from the mountain with the blueprint in his hands for constructing the Tabernacle, he announced the need to accomplish this magnificent construction project. He called upon Israel to give generously so that the building of the Tabernacle could be well supplied with money and material.

“And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of

Moses. And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and brought Yahweh’s offering, for the work of the tent of meeting, and for all the service of it, and for the holy garments. And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought brooches, and earrings, and signet-rings, and armlets, all jewels of gold; even every one that offered a wave offering of gold to Yahweh. And every man, with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats’ hair, and rams’ skins dyed red, and tahash skins, brought them. Every one that offered an offering of silver and bronze brought Yahweh’s offering; and every man, with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it. And all the women that were wise-hearted spun with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, the blue, and the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linen. And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun the goats' hair. And the rulers brought the onyx stones, and the stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the breast-plate; and the spice, and the oil: for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. The children of Israel brought a freewill offering to Yahweh; every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all the work, which Yahweh had commanded to be made by Moses.” (Exodus 35:20-29).

You will notice Moses forthrightly laid the needs of the Tabernacle building material and furniture before the people. Without hesitation, all of the Israelites departed to their homes and began immediately to collect the necessary items for the Tabernacle construction. Some brought abundantly of their material possessions; others freely gave of their time and efforts for this project.

The needs of Yahweh's ministry deeply stirred their hearts, and all who volunteered gave generously until the needs were abundantly supplied.

Would you believe it, Moses actually had to tell Israel to stop giving! Let us read from Exodus 36:3-7. “And they received of Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, with which to make it. And they brought yet to him free-will offerings every morning. And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came from the work which they wrought; and they spoke to Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which Yahweh commanded to make. And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing. For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much."

Israel had recently been released from Egyptian slavery. They were grateful in heart for their new-found liberty. Similarly, today those people who read The Sacred Name Broadcaster, and benefit from the services offered by the Assemblies of Yahweh, should consider this message to be a release from the abject bondage of false doctrine. Each one should thankfully give to Almighty Yahweh, so that others also might hear, even as someone else gave in the past so that they were able to hear the message of salvation.

The Assemblies of Yahweh ministry does not request gifts from those whose hearts are cold. We do not desire to build up the income of the organization to increase our personal remuneration. Paul explained to the Philippian brethren, "And you yourselves also know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the good tidings, when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly had fellowship with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only; for even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my need. Not that I seek for the gift; but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account. But I have all things, and abound: I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, an odor of a sweet smell, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to Yahweh. And my Elohim shall supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in the Messiah Yahshua. Now to our El and Father be the glory forever and ever. Amen." (Philippians 4:15-20).

Do you understand Paul's intended meaning in this passage? He praises Almighty Yahweh for the dedication of the Philippian brethren. Having laid his need before them, they realized that Paul did not want their money, but that they were giving a temporal gift for his use in his effort of teaching people the way to life everlasting. Their gift to Paul produced fruit (other converted people), which was credited to their account in heaven's bank of future reward.

The Assemblies of Yahweh has a similar outlook. We don't want your money! Rather, what we want is to see that you will be blessed by Almighty Yahweh for your dedication in helping to convey Yahweh's Truth to others. Those contributions which you send to the Assemblies of Yahweh of Bethel, Pennsylvania, will be placed in Yahweh's bank account. An accurate record will be kept in a bank account in the heavens. Your contributions will be exclusively used so that others also may hear the glorious Truth that Almighty Yahweh has revealed to His people in these last days. That fruit will be credited to your account upon Yahweh's records. Your money will not go to the individuals of the Assemblies of Yahweh, but it will be used by Almighty Yahweh to proclaim His Truth. You will receive a rich reward in His Kingdom, when your bank account can be withdrawn at Yahshua's judgment seat.

Most people today give if they have anything left over after satisfying themselves. Conversely, Almighty Yahweh reserves the first fruits for Himself.

Can we understand His ways more perfectly? Read the following passage carefully. "Trust in Yahweh with all your heart, and lean not upon your own understanding: In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will direct your paths. Be not wise in your own eyes; fear Yahweh, and depart from evil: It will be health to your navel, and marrow to your bones. Honor Yahweh with your substance, and with the first-fruits of all your increase: So shall your barns be filled with plenty, and your vats shall overflow with new wine." (Proverbs 3:5-10).

We must remember that we serve the Great King who governs this entire universe. We take too lightly the fact that He has called us into His blessed Truth. If we were to visit the President of the United States, or the King of England, we would take with us the most beautiful gift we could afford. Why do we think we can give Almighty Yahweh second best? Do we assume that Almighty Yahweh doesn't care if we rob Him of what He has reserved for Himself?

Let us consider that those who do not faithfully return to Almighty Yahweh of the blessings He has given to us—and do it first before we spend anything on ourselves—might just insult Almighty Yahweh. Thereby, such insult will be directed toward the Holy Spirit of grace until we have ultimately committed the unpardonable sin.

There are many people who buy things for their own pleasure and even squander their money lav-

The Assemblies of Yahweh ministry does not apologize for teaching tithing. It is the biblical way of financing Yahweh's ministry. We teach this principle strongly.

ishly BEFORE they give a token offering to Yahweh. On the other hand, it is the constant practice of a converted person to satisfy the claims of the actual owner of all our possessions—Yahweh—before we accommodate ourselves.

How about you? Do you take your paycheck each week and look at your net pay and then pay a tithe and give an offering to Almighty Yahweh for His glory? Some people insist that they are wallowing so deeply in debt that they can't tithe and give offerings to Almighty Yahweh. But nothing could be further from the truth! Proven time and time again is the fact that when someone makes the irreversible decision to tithe first, he will begin to pay much closer attention to his budget.

That person will discover that he has actually earned wages only to put them in a bag with holes. See Haggai 1:6. When we carefully BUDGET our earnings and determine not to squander any of our money, we will soon find that we are able to pay our tithes and give our freewill offerings to Almighty Yahweh without lowering our living standard. We will spend our income on the important things and not purchase trivialities that we do not need or cannot afford.

The Assemblies of Yahweh does not take up weekly collections in our worship services. We expect each member and faithful coworker to contribute of his own free will without any coercion. The Assemblies of Yahweh ministry does not apologize for teaching tithing. It is the biblical way of financing Yahweh's ministry. We teach this principle strongly.

Frequently, we wonder why more people do not assist us in this ministry by holding up our hands with their regular and generous giving. Perhaps they don't appreciate this Bible Truth they have so freely received. Or they may lack the faith to be obedient in all things. Our material possessions should be the least of our interests, rather than our pride and joy—a thing to covet. Only those who have a living faith in Yahweh will obey Him. Spiritual wealth far outweighs material possessions.

Perhaps they are unconcerned about the salvation of others, or they simply forget to acknowledge the priceless gift of knowledge they have received. Whatever the case, this ministry frequently exists on little, even on the crumbs that many other larger religious organizations might discard, or waste. How faithful have you personally been?

The blessings of life come from giving to others. But to experience these blessings you must learn to give to benefit others, with no expectations, as Yahshua did. Rewards in life do not come from getting, but from giving. Try out this concept and see for yourself! Yahweh can easily measure your faithfulness by how faithfully you obey His commandment to return His tithe. When Almighty Yahweh completely controls your purse strings and bank account, He will know that He has your absolute loyalty in keeping His Laws. Even with a faithful tithe, few people will give until it hurts. But Yahweh GAVE His only begotten Son to die for the sins of the world, and you must believe that

How well I recall visiting an elderly couple early in my ministry. They lived in a small mountain cabin, and their only income was from a small pension. Their furniture was old and well worn. The stove in their kitchen had a board propped against the oven door to keep it closed. Nevertheless, each month their tithe check, although small, routinely arrived on time. They could have kept that money and bought a new stove, but they thought more of obeying Yahweh's commandments than making their personal life comfortable. These thoughts have always been with me while writing out the checks to pay the bills of this ministry. This incident has been multiplied many times over by the widow's mite the ministry has received from numerous others over the years. This is why this ministry is operated so frugally and carefully.

How about you? Have you robbed Yahweh? Do you follow the principle of Matthew 23:23? “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and anise and cummin, and have left undone the weightier matters of the law, justice, and mercy, and faith: but these you ought to have done, and not to have left the other undone.” See Luke 11:42: “But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and pass over justice and the love of Yahweh: but these ought you to have done, and not to leave the other undone.”

Are you as dedicated to Yahweh as you should be? Or do you like to freeload? Some day, all of us will have to stand before the Messiah's judgment seat and look into the face of the One who gave all, even His life, for us. What will He do with us at that time? If we are faithful, He will receive us. Otherwise, we will probably be in danger of taking a final plunge into the lake of fire! ^{SNB}

- Let's be faithful out of love for Him rather than out of fear of what He can do to us.
- Let us be generous in giving and hold foremost in our hearts a sincere love for the lost souls who are hungering and thirsting after the Word of Yahweh.
- Let us give from the heart that our reward may be great in the Kingdom of heaven.
- Let us seek first His Kingdom and His righteousness that all else will be added to us.

May we count on you?

A Wakeup Call Sou

“And this, knowing the season, that already it is time for you to AWAKE OUT OF SLEEP: for now is salvation nearer to us than when we first believed. The night is far spent, and the day is at hand: let us therefore CAST OFF THE WORKS OF DARKNESS, and let us put on the armor of light. Let us walk becomingly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy. But PUT ON the Sovereign Yahshua the Messiah, and do not make provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts of it.” (Romans 13:11-14).

“Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of Yahweh has risen upon you. For, behold, DARKNESS SHALL COVER THE EARTH, and gross darkness the peoples; but Yahweh will arise upon you, and his glory shall be seen upon you. And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.” (Isaiah 60:1-3).

The message of salvation is going forth all over the world at this moment, predicting that SOMETHING EXTRAORDINARY IS ABOUT TO HAPPEN. The people of the world seemed to sense the collision course on which they have embarked; however, very few of these appear to be sufficiently motivated so that they may turn to the Bible to learn what they must do to be saved. The world today holds just too many allurements for most people.

“All you beasts of the field, come to devour, even all you beasts in the forest. His WATCHMEN ARE BLIND, they are all WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE; they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber. Yes, the dogs are greedy, they can never have enough; and these are shepherds that cannot understand: they have all turned to their own way, each one to his gain, from every quarter. Come, I will bring wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, a day great beyond measure.” (Isaiah 56:9-12).

“Now after John was delivered up, Yahshua came into Galilee, preaching the good tidings of Yahweh, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of Yahweh is at hand: REPENT, AND BELIEVE in the good tidings.” (Mark 1:14-15).

Indeed, most people today are spiritually asleep! Just as the five foolish virgins soundly slept while the bridegroom tarried and did not acquire sufficient oil for their lamps or their vessels (Matthew 25:1-13). People today are apathetic and very ambivalent. Seemingly they hear the message, but for some reason they cannot bring themselves to follow the teachings of the Sacred Scriptures. Perhaps it is the good times offered by materialism that the wrongly guided people to ignore the warnings of the Word of Yahweh. Possibly, it is the erroneous teaching that they have ingested for so many years that now blocks their understanding. Just as the prophet Jeremiah wrote: “O Yahweh, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, to you shall the nations come from the ends of the earth, and shall say, OUR FATHERS HAVE INHERITED NOTHING BUT LIES, even vanity and things in which there is no profit. Shall a man make to himself elohim, which yet are no elohim? Therefore, behold, I will cause them to know, this once will I cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is Yahweh.” (Jeremiah 16:19-20).

“He that comes from above is above all: he that is of the earth is of the earth, and of the earth he speaks: he that comes from heaven is above all. What he has seen and heard, of that he bears witness; and no man receives his witness. He that has received his witness has set his seal to this, that YAHWEH IS TRUE. For he whom Yahweh has sent speaks the words of Yahweh: for he gives not the Spirit by measure. The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand.” (John 3:31-35).

“Now when they heard this, they were PRICKED IN THEIR HEART, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do? And Peter said unto them, REPENT AND BE BAPTIZED every one of you in the name of Yahshua the Messiah to the remission of your sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as Yahweh our Elohim shall call to him. And with many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, SAVE YOURSELVES FROM THIS CROOKED GENERATION. They then that received his word were baptized: and there were added unto them in that day about three thousand souls. And they continued STEADFASTLY in the apostles’ teaching and partnership, in the breaking of bread and the prayers.” (Acts 2:37-42).

“The Elohim of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the Elohim of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Yahshua; whom you delivered up, and denied before the face of Pilate, when he had determined to release him. But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, and killed the Prince of life; whom YAHWEH RAISED FROM THE DEAD; of which we are witnesses. And by FAITH IN HIS NAME has his name made this man strong, whom you behold and know: yes, the faith which is through him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all. And now, brethren, I know that in ignorance you did it, as did also your rulers.

But the things which Yahweh fore-showed by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Messiah should suffer, he thus fulfilled. REPENT THEREFORE, AND TURN AGAIN, THAT YOUR SINS MAY BE BLOTTED OUT, so that there may come seasons of refreshing from the presence of Yahweh; and that he may send the Messiah who has been appointed for you, even Yahshua: whom the heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, of which Yahweh spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets that have been from of old. Moses indeed said, A prophet shall Yahweh Elohim raise up to you from among your brethren, like to me; to him shall you listen in all things whatever he shall speak to you. And it shall be, that every soul that shall not listen to that prophet, shall be utterly destroyed from among the people. Yes and all the prophets from Samuel and them that followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. You are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which Yahweh made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, And in your seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed. To you first Yahweh, having raised up his Servant, sent him to bless you, in TURNING AWAY EVERY ONE OF YOU FROM YOUR INIQUITIES.” (Acts 3:13-26).

You have been hearing of The Sacred Name Radio Broadcast, The Sacred Name Telecast, and, reading in this publication, a call to repentance and a change in these troubled times in which we are now living. Almighty Yahweh has revealed great things in His Word in these last days. Gems of biblical wisdom—hidden for centuries—are now being uncovered. The signs of the Second Coming of the Messiah appear all around us, and those who are faithful and diligent in their quest for salvation will heed those signs. They will ask the question, “What must we do to be saved?” just as did this author years ago. Then, they will be led into the knowledge of spiritual Truth, just as we have been. You will find this true message of salvation of the end-time Philadelphia Assembly in the Assemblies of Yahweh. However, you must be motivated to act on this knowledge.

Wake Up World!

The signs of the end of the age were clearly foretold by Yahshua the Messiah in His Olivet prophecies, especially in the first 14 verses of Matthew 24. Yahshua the Messiah foretold the destruction of the Jerusalem Temple and its buildings, setting that destruction forth as a sign that the remainder of His prophecy will also be fulfilled at the end of the age.

Yahshua the Messiah was asked, “What shall be the sign of your coming?” (The Greek word for coming is parousia, #3952 in the Strong’s Concordance Greek Dictionary, and it means to come near.) Also, they asked: “And of the consummation of the age?” (Consummation is #4931 and 4930, meaning to complete, the entire completion, also, to execute.)

Yahshua the Messiah warns that many would come in His Name, saying that “I am the Messiah,” but will lead many astray. How will they be led astray? They will be led astray by the false doctrines that are taught in popular religion, by the government, and by charlatans who will even use the Messiah’s True Name—Yahshua.

Then, those who are alive at the consummation of the age will hear of wars and rumors of wars. This is certainly happening at this present time! Yahshua Messiah tells His readers not to be troubled, because these things must come to pass before the end (the final conclusion of man’s age). Military conflicts will only worsen as the end of the age approaches. There will also be famines and earthquakes in various places. Famines are now taking place in various areas around the world, and earthquakes are constantly increasing in number.

Then, persecution and tribulation will appear, and True Worshipers shall be hated of all nations for the sake of Messiah Yahshua’s Name. Because lawlessness increases everywhere, many will hate one another and deliver up one another. Perseverance is necessary to endure the end-of-the-age trials, so that we may be saved. Finally, these good tidings of the Kingdom (the True message of salvation) must be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end shall come. We recognize that Christianity is not preaching the genuine message of the Sacred Scriptures. The Assemblies of Yahweh ministry here at Bethel, Pennsylvania, continually endeavors to fulfill the Great Commission by preaching the whole counsel of the Word of Yahweh, Acts 20:27. (See also 2 Timothy 4:2.)

We feel impelled to cry out—“Wake up world!” We are nearer the end than you may think! Islam almost conquered Europe in the eighth century before its spread was halted by Charles Martel, Charlemagne’s grandfather, at the Battle of Tours in 732. Islam again hopes to conquer the world, and we are not fighting back as aggressively as we should be.

The Israelites and the Jews are descendants of Isaac, Abraham's legitimate son by his wife Sarah. However, the animosity between the two peoples continues. Nevertheless, Yahweh's prophecy says He will save the tents of Judah first, Zechariah 12:7. "Yahweh also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem be not magnified above Judah." We can trust His Word!

This should be another wake-up call for the world, because Almighty Yahweh will not desert the Jewish people who have sacrificed to immigrate to the land of their forefathers following World War II and the end of the Holocaust. Please see Zechariah 12:3 for this pertinent prophecy. "And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples; all that burden them- selves with it shall be severely wounded; and ALL THE NATIONS OF THE EARTH SHALL BE GATHERED TOGETHER AGAINST IT."

War Is Imminent

Since the October 7, 2023, terrorist attacks on Israel—in which approximately 1,200 people were savagely murdered by Hamas (and about 250 hostages were taken into Gaza) and other terrorist proxies of Iran, such as Isis and Islamic Jihad—a state of war has existed between Israel and Hamas and Hezbollah. Over the last more than 300 days, Israel has eliminated the command and control of Hamas and Hezbollah whenever it can. In April, Israel destroyed a building near the Iranian consulate building in Syria's capital of Damascus, killing Iran's Islamic Revolutionary Guards Corps commander Brig-Gen Mohammed Reza Zahedi and six others who were meeting with Hezbollah leaders. Iran responded with an attack on Israel, with over 300 drones and missiles on April 13.

long-range drone hit the center of Tel Aviv, killing one Israeli. The next day, Israel struck Yemen for the first time, by striking the Yemeni port of Hodeidah, setting it ablaze. "The port we attacked is not an innocent port. It is used for military purposes, it is used as an entry point for deadly weapons supplied to the Houthis by Iran," said Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu.

On July 30, 2024, Israel killed top Hezbollah commander Fuad Shukr in response to the deadly Majdal Shams attack on July 27 that killed 12 Druze children and teenagers. Fuad Shukr was a founding member of Hezbollah and was a close associate of Imad Mughniyeh. They were accused by the United States as the terrorists who plotted the 1983 bombing of the U.S. Marine barracks in Beirut. Because of this, the U.S. State Department had a $5 million bounty on his head.

The next day, July 31, 2024, Hamas leader Ismail Haniyeh was assassinated in Tehran. After

YAHWEH

The Fifth Commandment
Honor Your Father and Your Mother

“And Yahweh visited Hannah, and she conceived, and bore three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel grew before Yahweh.

“Now Eli was very old; and he heard all that his sons did to all Israel, and how that they lay with the women that did service at the door of the tent of meeting. And he said to them, Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all this people. No, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear: you make Yahweh’s people to transgress. If one man sins against another, Elohim shall judge him; but if a man sins against Yahweh, who shall pray for him? However, they did not listen to the voice of their father, because it was Yahweh’s will to put them to death. And the child Samuel grew on, and increased in favor both with Yahweh, and also with men.

“And there came a man of Elohim to Eli, and said to him, In this manner says Yahweh, Did I reveal myself to the house of your father, when they were in Egypt in bondage to Pharaoh’s house? And did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? And did I give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire? Why do you kick at my sacrifice and at my offering, which I have commanded in my habitation, and honor your sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the foremost of all the offerings of Israel my people? Therefore Yahweh, the Elohim of Israel, says, I said indeed that your house, and the house of your father, should walk before me forever: but now Yahweh says, Be it far from me; for them that honor me I will honor, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed. Behold, the days come, that I will cut off your arm, and the arm of your father's house, that there shall not be an old man in your house. And you shall behold the affliction of my habitation, in all the wealth which Elohim shall give Israel; and there shall not be an old man in your house forever. And the man of yours, whom I shall not cut off from my altar, shall be to consume your eyes, and to grieve your heart; and all the increase of your house shall die in the flower of their age. And this shall be the sign to you, that shall come on your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die, both of them. And I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in my heart and in my mind: and I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before my anointed forever. And it shall come to pass, that everyone that is left in your house shall come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray you, into one of the priests' offices, that I may eat a morsel of bread.” (1 Samuel 2:21-36).

In our continuing study into the Law of Yahweh, we shall scrutinize the fifth commandment. In Exodus 20:12, we read the fifth commandment, “Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land which Yahweh your Elohim gives you.”

In our world today, we find a very unique situation—a situation that has been rarely paralleled in the history of the world up to this time. My reference is to the ever-present problem of juvenile delinquency. The headlines in the newspapers today bring to our attention such reports of atrocities and gross violence committed by teenagers that would have greatly shocked the people who lived a century ago. Were our forefathers to return and hear of the misdeeds of the youth of our time, they would certainly conclude that some people appear to be “less than sane!”

Many psychiatrists and social workers today, who receive reports of these malicious acts and must evaluate, deal with, and counsel the youthful offenders, repeat popular rhetoric, and present contrived answers to these serious problems, but they never seem to solve them. Expressions like this are popular and will be used to excuse sin and wickedness: “Well, the child had a blighted youth. He was abused as a child. He had a bad childhood. He was denied the opportunity to express himself.” They assert that we must take the word punishment out of the dictionary and allow these problem children to develop their own personality unhindered by any outside source.

They seemingly forget that a character trait termed obedience is clearly legislated in the Bible. They also attempt to explain the world we live in WITHOUT acknowledging an Almighty Creator Being. They forget that even a child is known by his doings (Proverbs 20:11). To them, laws are only to be obeyed when you personally believe they should be, and when they don't actually affect you. Seizing upon the popular theory of evolution (a teaching now acknowledged as truth by even the previous Roman Catholic Pope), they deny existence of such a concept as sin; nevertheless, it is proven that sinful acts have caused much sorrow. “Wisdom is better than weapons of war; BUT ONE SINNER DESTROYS MUCH GOOD.” (Ecclesiastes 9:18).

Just what could be wrong with requiring every child to obey and to honor their fathers and mothers? Just what kind of attitude, or spirit, has the world fallen into that leads the people to imagine that bad is good and vice versa? Let us look carefully at this commandment to obtain its full meaning.

Turn to Isaiah 3:4. “And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.” Isaiah 5:20-21 reads, “Woe to them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe to them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!” In our nation today, we find these prophecies fulfilled in a manner unparalleled in history. (See Matthew 24:37.) You might say, “Now look here, preacher, we don't simply take a person from the cradle today and make him the mayor of the town tomorrow,” or something like that. No, but you have certainly heard people say something like this: “The accent is on youth—America's markets are controlled by youth.”

Look carefully at verse 12, where we find an additional prediction to drive home the point. “As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, THEY THAT LEAD YOU cause you to err, and destroy the way of your paths.” Does this not appear to be a perfect description of the times in which we live today?

If the fathers and mothers of the world today would only believe in the Law of Yahweh. If they were once more to obey it, and teach their children that strict obedience to the scriptural commandments will produce an atmosphere of happiness, our country (or even the entire world) would quickly take on the healthiest atmosphere it has enjoyed at its birth over 200 years ago.

How often have you come into contact with this little homey illustration? The father comes home from work “dog-tired.” He wants to rest. The child says to the father, “I want to go to the movies.” The father says, “I am tired and want to go to bed early tonight. I don’t want to go to the movies.” However, the child will nag and demand until the father gives in just to get a little peace. This episode is repeated countless times around the country daily. Children are their parent’s oppressors. Children impudently dictate their childish whims to their parents, and the parents spiritlessly submit to the demands of their offspring.

If the fathers and mothers of the world today would only believe in the Law of Yahweh. If they were once more to obey it, and teach their children that strict obedience to the scriptural commandments will produce an atmosphere of happiness, our country (or even the entire world) would quickly take on the healthiest atmosphere it has enjoyed at its birth over 200 years ago.

To honor one’s father and mother means that we are obedient to their wishes. The Apostle Paul tells the Ephesian Assembly in Ephesians 6:1-3, “Children, obey your parents in Yahweh: for this is right. Honor your father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise), that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth.”

Paul teaches that this commandment is the first commandment in the Law offering a promise for obedience. It relates to our responsibility toward our fellow men. It naturally has to mean that we should honor our human parents. But this comprises yet another Scripture that embodies a two-fold meaning. The Scriptures declare that Yahweh the Almighty spiritually stands in the position of our human father. When our children honor us—their human father whom they can see—they show the world that they also have honor for their invisible Heavenly Father. Yahshua taught His disciples to address their prayer to: “Our Father who is in heaven”

Respecting our parents must also be viewed in another way, as the Apostle Paul points out in Ephesians 6:4. “And, you fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but nurture them in the chastening and admoni- tion of Yahweh.” The fathers must command respect from their children by living the kind of exemplary lives that provide direction to their offspring. The fathers should obediently submit their lives to our Heavenly Father by keeping His commandments, statutes, and judgments which comprise Yahweh’s Covenant Law. Therefore, it appears that the parents are intermediaries between the Majesty On High and their offspring, creating an area of special spiritual responsibilities.

Often, I recall the thought contained in the homey illustration wherein a father started out for town one snowy morning to purchase supplies for his family. Since the snow was quite deep, the going was very difficult as he walked along. In a little while, he turned around to see how far he had come. He noticed that there was someone following him, walking in his exact footprints. Upon retracing his steps, he discovered that his oldest son had followed him. He asked the boy, “What are you doing? It is very cold out here, and the snow is deep,” whereupon the boy replied, “I am following you, dad! It’s not so hard when I walk in your footprints.”

A child usually desires to imitate his father. How many times have I encountered situations wherein a child will follow the father, either upward into a rewarding life of spiritual obedience to Yahweh, or downward into a life of lawlessness which will ultimately terminate in death in the lake of fire.

Many times I hear that the “one-eyed monster,” television, evidently exercises great influence upon the attitudes and standard of morality of the children. I would say that it even exerts enormous influence over the parents! Nevertheless, I would like to ask everyone who reads this article the following questions: “How many homes today have a family worship on a daily, or even weekly, basis? How many families ever discuss a religious subject at all, except to malign individuals, or groups, seeking to do the Will of Yahweh? How many families ever get together for a Bible Study?” The Sacred Scriptures have never removed the responsibility that indicates that the father shall teach his children. So many people would have us believe that teaching children is the responsibility of the churches or public schools. Are we fathers fulfilling our mission? Surely we should be very selective in what television programs our children are allowed to view. The parents must remain in firm control of molding the little lumps of clay Yahweh gives them; they do not possess the experience to do the job themselves.

One of the first things that I taught my children was that when they disobey any one of the scriptural commandments, they will actually hurt someone. The basic point that I tried to impress upon every one of their minds was that they would hurt themselves more than they would hurt anyone else through their misconduct.

In the scriptural passage that I read at the start of this radio program (1 Samuel 3), the account appears concerning how Eli the High Priest allowed his sons go to the extent that they were poisoning, through their transgressions, the spiritual lives of all Israel who attended the worship services at the central Tabernacle. At that time in history, the priesthood—the ministry of Yahweh—was inherited, passing from father to son (if the son was not somehow disqualified as directed in Leviticus chapters 21 and 22). Yahweh told Eli to restrain his sons from their wicked actions and return to Him with a whole heart. He directed that they should repent and again respect the sacrifices that were offered and should not defile His holy tent of meeting with a gratification of their own carnal lusts.

Eli relayed this message from Yahweh to his sons in verses 22 to 25. However, Eli, the old priest of Yahweh, did not ENFORCE OBEEDIENCE to Yahweh’s Torah (Law). When they refused to heed their father, Eli should have denied his sons the authority, or right, to minister in the worship services at the tent of meeting. By not obeying their father’s words, Eli’s sons were not merely disobeying their human father. Their acts of insolence reflected adversely upon Almighty Yahweh. By polluting the Tabernacle, they were disobeying their spiritual Father, who they should have revered. “For I have told him that I will judge his house forever, for the iniquity WHICH HE KNEW, because his sons brought a curse ON THEMSELVES, and he DID NOT RESTRAIN THEM.”

Yahweh will not tolerate deliberate disobedience. At this time, the Almighty raised up Samuel to become a priest, a prophet, and a judge in Israel to serve Him with a whole heart and, in effect, to become a type of the Savior, Yahshua the Messiah. Even so it is today. When there is disobedience, when parents do not restrain their children, when fathers do not submissively honor and respect their spiritual head, Yahweh will pour out punishment upon the disobedient people. He has never changed throughout the annals of history, and He never will (Malachi 3:6). If we practice disobedience to Him, He will certainly remove His scriptural promises from us. We will have no share in the age to come, nor will He call us His children.

1 Samuel 2:35 appears to prophesy directly concerning the Savior, Yahshua the Messiah. “And I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in my heart and in my mind: and I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before my anointed forever.”

Hebrews 7 declares that Yahshua is a priest forever. The One who was resurrected and granted endless life was Himself the replacement for the Levitical priesthood of old, and He faithfully obeyed the commandments of Yahweh, and, thus, lived sin-free.

We must do the same! We can never fall back into sin, but we must maintain our commitment to Yahshua the Messiah. Otherwise—“It has happened to them according to the true proverb, The dog turns to his own vomit again, and the sow that had washed, to wallowing in the mire.” (2 Peter 2:22).

I leave this thought with you today: for a parent to receive honor from his children, he must follow the admonition of Proverbs 22:6. “Train up a child in the way he should go, and even when he is old he will not depart from it.” How many who read this article will immediately take the necessary steps to correct their child-rearing deficiencies? We hope you will hear and heed, so you may receive blessings from the Most High, and not a curse.

A Wakeup Call Sounds!

traveling to Iran to attend the inauguration of Iranian President Masoud Pezashkian, he was staying at a military-run guest house in Tehran. The deadly blast was supposedly from a bomb that Israel had smuggled into his room, which was then remotely detonated. Because of this, Iran has vowed revenge against Israel and any other nation who helps Israel.

Since then, Iran has been threatening to attack Israel because of the assassination of Hamas leader Ismail Haniyeh in Tehran, although Israel has not claimed responsibility for the assassination. Hezbollah is likely to participate in the Iranian attack when it does occur, or even attack first. American officials are hoping that Iran may be deterred from its attack following international pressure and the movement of American naval assets into the region.

The Pentagon announced that U.S. Secretary of Defense Lloyd Austin had ordered the deployment of the Abraham Lincoln strike group to the eastern Mediterranean. “Reinforcing this commitment, Secretary Austin has ordered the USS Abraham Lincoln Carrier Strike Group, equipped with F-35C fighters, to accelerate its transit to the Central Command area of responsibility, adding to the capabilities already provided by the USS Theodore Roosevelt Carrier Strike Group.” The Pentagon also said that Austin had “ordered the USS Georgia, a guided missile submarine to the Central Command region.”

“The U.S. Air Force has forward deployed 12 F-22 Raptor fifth generation fighters to an unconfirmed location in the Middle East. The aircraft are permanently stationed at joint base Elmendorf-Richardson in Alaska, and transferred through Royal Air Force (RAF) Lakenheath in the United Kingdom before being forward deployed under the US Central Command, which is responsible for the Middle Eastern theater. The deployment comes as part of a broader surge in the American military presence in the region, which is intended to maximize Washington’s ability to respond to expected military retaliation by Iran against America’s closest security partner Israel,” according to Military Watch Magazine.

Consequently, war is imminent in the Middle East and could explode into the limited nuclear war that is prophesied to occur in the end times. Hamas has named the October 7, 2023 attack on Israel the Al-Aqsa Flood, to rally all of the surrounding Arab nations to attack Israel to prevent the rebuilding of the third Temple on the Temple Mount (which they call Al-Aqsa). The fact that nearly 2,000 Israelis ascended the Temple Mount on Tisha B’Av, led by several Knesset members, will certainly exacerbate the tense situation. The rebuilding of the Temple is imminent, since a red heifer has been certified as being ready to be sacrificed. Its ashes will then be used for the water of cleansing. Also, a 5.5 magnitude earthquake that occurred in Syria on Tisha B’Av was also felt throughout Israel as far south as the Dead Sea. Prophecy is being fulfilled each and every day, it seems!

Will You Continue to Sleep?

Matthew 25:1-13 contains the account of the ten virgins. Five were wise, or prudent, and they obtained plenty of oil in their vessels with their lamps, while five were foolish and remained asleep, forgetting to obtain the oil they needed to keep their lamps burning brightly. When the bridegroom came and everyone was awakened the five wise virgins had sufficient oil in their lamps and in their vessels so that they could travel in the darkness to meet the bridegroom. The foolish virgins did not have sufficient oil; therefore, they were excluded from the wedding feast.

Will you wake up and repent and begin your quest for Yahshua the Messiah and prepare for His Second Coming? Now is the time to make your preparations! Begin to live the Kingdom way of life so that when the Messiah returns, you will be prepared in obedience to His Covenant Law to meet Him. While the world continues blindly down the broad way of self-indulgence, leading to destruction, those who are Yahweh’s True Worshipers will travel down the narrow pathway toward Yahweh’s Kingdom

May we assist you in finding the way to eternal life? Don’t delay! Tomorrow may be too late! ^{SNB}

"You've got to prime the pump.
You must have faith
and believe.
You've got to give of yourself before you're worthy to receive."

"I told my wife, 'We'll prime the pump. We won't take anything out, and we'll put our money into the ministry.'... I used a lot of my money, sometimes as much as 50 percent of my paycheck and put it into the work, but I don't regret any of that. I'm still unworthy.

Everything that I have comes from Yahweh and belongs to Yahweh, so I give great honor and great praise to Yahweh our Elohim for this ministry and for all the people that are here....I know my wife supported me every step of the way and some of my children also. So I give great praise to Almighty Yahweh, and I encourage you to help me keep priming the pump, and we'll keep working for Yahweh until Yahshua returns, I hope. May Yahweh bless you."
