Each Passover, we remember the suffering and death of our Savior, Yahshua the Messiah. The crown of thorns, the torture of the Roman scourge, and the iron nails through His hands and His feet—Yahshua suffered in agony because of our sins.

"Because he poured out his soul to death, and was numbered with the transgressors: yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors." (Isaiah 53:12b). Yahshua gave only one sign—three days and three nights in the tomb—that He is the Messiah. Yahshua was laid in the tomb of a rich man (Isaiah 53:9) and resurrected at the end of the Sabbath. (Matthew 28:1).

This month's cover is taken from inside of the Garden Tomb (near Golgotha—the place of the skull) looking outward. The owners of the Garden Tomb have carved the angels' proclamation (Matthew 28:6, Mark 16:6, and Luke 24:6) "He is not here, for He has been raised," upon the door of the tomb.

Today, Yahshua is on the right hand of Yahweh, soon to descend to set up the Kingdom of Yahweh on earth. Are you ready for Yahshua's Second Coming?

THE

TESTAMENT

What so many people of modern-day nominal Christianity do not realize is that the Bible is a book of prophecy. This makes the Bible relevant to people of all ages. Way back in the garden of Eden, when Adam and Eve first sinned, Almighty Yahweh promised them a Savior. He said that the seed of

by Elder Jacob O. Meyer

the woman would crush the head of the serpent. That promise was a prophecy. Almighty Yahweh did not send a Messiah immediately. He did not send the Redeemer to purchase back His people at that particular moment. Nevertheless, the prophecy was made, and it was certain to be fulfilled at some future date. Some day, when the Messiah returns, the head of the serpent (Satan) will be crushed. See Romans 16:20.

Prophecy in the Bible is what makes it come alive for us today—in our time. We realize that whenever we look at a newspaper today we can see the world sinking ever deeper into the abyss of wickedness and sin. One need only pick up a newspaper, and he can read reports of violence, murders, rapes, robberies, and all kinds of other wickedness. Prophecy tells us that the last days would be just as the days of Noah's age. It is just as the Apostle Paul predicted in 2 Timothy 3:13, that “Evil men and imposters shall become worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.” Read the entire chapter and notice all the prophecies Paul made.

One who studies the Bible can tell from these prophecies that we are actually in the last days. When we conclude that the world indeed is in the last days, we will prepare our lives so that we may become like Yahshua by keeping Yahweh's Laws. We have that added incentive to prepare our lives so that we will be able to stand securely in the evil day when the tribulation strikes.

Almighty Yahweh has prophesied these things by His Holy Spirit. His prophets (His servants) have recorded them for us. The Holy Spirit inspired these men to write these prophecies so that the people of Yahweh would have an opportunity to prepare themselves against the day of evil. We must recognize the Bible as a remarkable book of prophecy which shows how mankind rejected the government of Almighty Yahweh, but one day that government will take over the rulership of this earth, and, then, this world will be ruled in righteousness.

In this segment of the current series, we wish to begin the message by reading Amos 3:7. Whenever anything happens on this earth of great consequence, we must believe that Almighty Yahweh has previously recorded a prophecy relating to it somewhere in His Word. Notice what we find in Amos 3:7. “Surely the Sovereign Yahweh will do nothing, except he reveals his secret to his servants the prophets.” The prophets of Yahweh recorded these predictions ahead of time through the revelation given from on High by the Holy Spirit. Almighty Yahweh desired to forewarn His people and, thereby, prepared them ahead of time.

The doctrine of the Messiah comes to us from the Israelite culture, not from pagan concepts. Yahshua the Messiah Himself was prophesied all the way back in history when Adam and Eve sinned.

Let us focus on the Messiah now. So many people believe that the New Testament comprises a separate entity completely, entirely separated from the Old Testament Scriptures. Many people in nominal ch-rchianity today feel that they could remove the Old Testament from the Bible, and they would not be losing anything; nevertheless, this concept is erroneous.

Do you know that there are about 287 different passages directly quoted from the Old Testament Scriptures to be found in the New Testament? (Some are repeated.) This is absolutely comforting to those people who know that the New Testament must have a foundation somewhere. Tragically, for centuries people have not recognized that the foundation of the New Testament is based in the Old Testament.

Many people have gone off on various tangents, originating doctrines that cannot be proven—even doctrines that are totally in error. If they could arrive at the conclusion that the Old Testament is the basis of our Faith, and that the New Testament completes the plan of salvation predicted in the Hebrew Bible, then it would be absolutely inconceivable that they could wander off the Narrow Way. Confusion of doctrine that is so evident on the spectrum of ch-rchianity today would be abated. Ch-rchianity today espouses a myriad of doctrines, but there is only one true doctrine, and that is what we all should strive to learn! Yahweh's true doctrine may be acquired by reading the Bible—studying and harmonizing it from Genesis to Revelation. When we understand the Bible in this configuration, then we will have made great strides toward once more returning to Almighty Yahweh in Truth and restoring the pure worship of the Apostolic Assembly.

We must remember the Sitz im Leben (which means the life setting) of the New Testament. The life setting of the New Testament was rooted in the Israelite culture—Hebrew culture, the Semitic peoples. Its core was the sound teaching of commandment keeping. It cannot be found in Indo-European languages, or any of the pagan cultures of the Greek or Roman mythology. Conversely, the life setting of the New Testament is intrinsically rooted in the Israelite-Hebrew worship. When we arrive at that understanding, then we have reached the basic point of restoring the true doctrines of the Apostolic Assembly.

Likewise, the doctrine of the Messiah comes to us from the Israelite culture, not from pagan concepts. Yahshua the Messiah Himself was prophesied all the way back in history when Adam and Eve sinned. That was approximately 6,000 years ago.

When they were in the Garden of Eden, where Almighty Yahweh had placed Adam and Eve in a beautiful environment that was conducive to the perpetuation of their lives, our progenitors were taught the way of the Most High. Eden was a beautiful place, magnificent to have as your home, to reside in as your domicile. Adam and Eve did not have a truly reverent regard for Almighty Yahweh, however. They rejected His commandments, and, as a consequence, they rebelled against His government. They accepted the government and rule of Satan the devil. As a consequence, Almighty Yahweh punished them by driving them out of the Garden of Eden. They were then forced to acquire a lifestyle that He had never intended for them.

However, the moment they sinned, He promised them a Savior! That promise is found in Genesis 3:15. It is the first recorded prophecy of the Messiah. “And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her seed: he shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.”

Those prophecies follow all the way down through the annals of the Bible. The Messiah is described in various prophecies, such as Micah 5:2. We learn from this passage exactly where the Messiah was predicted to be born. “But you, Beth-lehem Ephrathah, which are little to be among the thousands of Judah, out of you shall one come forth to me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose origin is from an ancient era, from ages of eternity.”

Here in this passage, we find that Yahshua the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem. In Hebrew, the name Bethlehem means a house of bread. Where did Herod send the magoy (wisemen)? He sent them to Bethlehem, and in Bethlehem they located the Messiah. How did they know in which town to search to locate the birthplace of the Messiah? Herod asked some of the scholars and students of his day concerning the Bible prophecies relating to the Messiah, and the Bible scholars immediately informed him that the Messiah was prophesied to be born in Bethlehem; consequently, to Bethlehem they went.

Although seemingly insignificant, this little town was destined to be the birthplace of the Messiah. From it had come King David, a man who had labored to combine the 12 tribes of Israel into a cohesive unit. Similarly, the Messiah of Israel will merge the nations of the world into a cohesive governmental unit, the Kingdom of Yahweh. Do you see the parallel and the association there? The parallel is obvious when we consider the prophecy of Isaiah 9:6-7. “For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty El, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his Kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from now on even forever. The zeal of Yahweh of hosts will perform this.” Yahshua the Messiah fulfilled Micah’s prophecy. He was born in Bethlehem, although His parents had previously moved to Nazareth. Later on, they once more moved back to Nazareth, and that was where Yahshua was brought up, in the environs of Nazareth.

Let us look at another Scripture. Turn to Matthew chapter 1, where we will find that the Messiah is prophesied to be born of a virgin. “Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, And they shall call his name Immanu El; which is, being interpreted, Elohim is with us.” (Matthew 1:23). This is a direct quote from Isaiah 7:14.

When we analyze this passage of Scripture, we find that the Messiah was prophesied to be born of a virgin. “Therefore Yahweh himself will give you a sign: behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanu El.” Various critical people have discredited this Scripture as a prophecy of the Messiah. But let us not be too hasty in our rejection of it.

First of all, they will point out that the word virgin here is translated from the Hebrew term ’almah, which we will readily acknowledge as correct. The term ’almah appears there, and it is not the usual Hebrew word for a virgin, which is bethulah. However, before we leap to conclusions, let us recognize that a consideration of each instance where the term ‘almah appears in the Hebrew Bible will inform us that the term is used for a YOUNG virgin. The term bethulah can mean a virgin of any age, but the term ‘almah then must mean a VIRGIN of YOUNG AGE. The author would propose this definition.

In addition, those liberal theologians who have rejected the virgin birth must be confronted with the Greek Septuagint translation of this passage. “Therefore [Yahweh] himself shall give you a sign; behold, a virgin shall conceive in the womb, and shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Emmanuel. Butter and honey shall he eat, before he knows either to prefer evil, or choose the good. For before the child shall know good or evil, he refuses evil, to choose the good; and the land shall be forsaken which thou art afraid of because of the two kings.”

In this Greek version of the Septuagint, the term parthenos is found. The Greek word parthenos definitely means a virgin. It was Jews that translated Isaiah 7:14-16 from the Hebrew into the Greek Septuagint about 225 years before the Messiah’s birth. Therefore, the apostolic believers, Messianic believers of the apostolic era, countered their critics with that conclusion: “You translated it virgin, and that is exactly what the term ‘almah means.”

If you have never perceived the great beauty, the cohesiveness and the consistency of the text of the Sacred Scriptures, you can discover this fact for yourself by going back to the original autographs, as closely as you can return to them, and to the original languages in which the Bible was written, to solve the problems of Bible doctrine. If not, then you have missed one of the greatest aspects of Bible study. We, in the Assemblies of Yahweh, have discovered the Sacred Name of Almighty Yahweh and the Savior’s True Name, which was Yahshua Hamashiach, Yahshua the Messiah. These are only a few of the significant things that we have discovered by returning to the original documents.

BEINGS

PART 5

Why is it that worldly Christianity, for centuries past, has not preached the entire counsel of the Word of Yahweh? The answer is because worldly christianity has actually cut the Bible in two, somewhat over half, since the Old Testament comprises more material than the New Testament. The Bible must be correctly considered as one unit, one volume, one work.

We read in Acts 20:27 that the Apostle Paul explained that he did

by Elder Jacob O. Meyer

not neglect to preach the “whole counsel” (the entire message) of the Sacred Scriptures. The Bible is not a disjointed message; therefore, in order to understand it correctly, the Bible student must read and apply the Sacred Scriptures from Genesis to Revelation.

Turn to Isaiah 28:9, “Whom will he teach knowledge? And whom will he make to under- stand the message? Them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts? For it is precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, there a little.”

Isaiah the prophet is instructing us to make use of the entire Bible. Biblical truths are found interspersed through the entire text, “here a little and there a little.” Consequently, we should study subjects all the way through the Bible, from Genesis to the book of Revelation. In the Hebrew text of Isaiah 28, we encounter a little jingle that was put together in the school systems of ancient Israel. The Hebrew text reads: "Zav le zav, zav le zav, chav le chav, chav le chav, zeer sham, zeer sham." The jingle has a meaning, however. It is not merely urging the children to chant a little "jingle" in unison; rather, it is intended to impress upon all of the school children of Israel (and adults also) that the Bible must be considered as setting forth one complete message. Throughout the volume, you will find the reference and the explanation to these various subjects and terms. Continue in Isaiah 28:11, "Nay, but by men of strange lips and with another tongue will he speak to this people; to whom he said, This is the rest, give you rest to him that is weary; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear. [It seems that people don't want to hear anything except what they personally are inclined to believe.] Therefore shall the word of Yahweh be to them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken."

How may we achieve sound doctrine? Conservative theologians, who teach the correct Bible study method, recognize the Bible as a complete unit. This is the Bible study method they teach in the seminaries; nevertheless, many times the problem is that they do not receive cooperation in practical application. The Bible, in worldly religion today, is not perceived as a complete unit. It is simply perceived as, possibly, a book of inspiration containing some inspiring passages, such as the book of Psalms, the Sermon on the Mount, or similar passages. In fact, this is a book that contains prophecy, instruction, doctrine, teaching, and it sets forth the standards for acquiring a happy and fruitful life. Those standards are intrinsically incorporated within Yahweh's Covenant Law that He gave us for this purpose.

I have been teaching the Bible for over 40 years not only on radio and television, but also through our publications and preaching. During that time, I have frequently referred to John 10:35. This very instructive passage informs us, "If he called them

This is a book that contains prophecy, instruction, doctrine, teaching, and it sets forth the standards for acquiring a happy and fruitful life.

Elohim, to whom the word of Yahweh came (and the Scripture cannot be broken).” Can we break the Bible up, not only at a verse, a chapter, or a book, but at the Testaments? Yesterday, I toured a religious facility, and I found offered in the bookstore a Pennsylvania Dutch version of the New Testament, so I purchased the volume. I already have one or two other volumes of Pennsylvania Dutch New Testaments, but I wanted this particular volume, because I will soon be speaking in this dialect (or language, if you please) over our newly enlarged WMLK shortwave radio transmitter.

I am in communication with a group that publishes a small periodical in the Palatinate in Germany. The individual, who is the editor of this publication, wrote a year or two ago that a conference was held in the Palatinate region of Germany, attended by 300 scholars who came to the conclusion that this dialect, which they call Palatinate German, is an actual language. It is a sister language to Hoch Deutsch, which is High German. This dialect is also a sister language to Yiddish, because those who understand Pennsylvania Dutch (Pennsylvania German) can also understand Yiddish fairly well. The Yiddish speakers in Judaism can also understand those who speak the Pennsylvania Deutsch language here in the eastern part of the United States and also in other locations, for instance in Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, etc., where the Amish have migrated.

Consequently, I purchased the Pennsylvania Dutch New Testament, but to use the entire Bible you really need the English version. I use The Sacred Scriptures, Bethel Edition Bible, because of the need to correct a large number of errors found in the King James Version. When I began studying the Sacred Scriptures over 40 years ago, I realized the importance of obtaining a Bible that reflects the original text as closely as possible. We completed publishing The Sacred Scriptures, Bethel Edition in 1981 and have just completed our sixth printing, which, when it is fully dispersed, will have placed over 30,000 copies into the hands of sincere Truth seekers. Somewhere between 40,000 and 80,000 errors have been corrected from the King James Version of the Bible, including the restoration of the Name of the Almighty, whose Name was Yahweh in the Hebrew Bible and the Son’s Name, which is Yahshua. Also, you just heard me read the word Elohim. We have restored the term Elohim to replace the word G-d, which is not a sacred term at all according to the original texts (as closely as we can return to them).

As a consequence, I would like to urge you to consider the most accurate Bible study method, which is accepting the entire Bible from Genesis to Revelation, for your Bible study method. What that means is that the Name of the Almighty in the Old Testament is exactly the same as in the New Testament, which can be readily proven. Dr. George Howard, of the University of Georgia, has written quite a lot of material on this subject, showing how you can actually tell where the Almighty’s Name was removed from the text by the Old Testament quotes that appear in the New Testament.

I have been speaking on the subject of the four classes of created beings that Almighty Yahweh created to be His servants. He calls humankind Obadiah, a servant of Yahweh, but He also created the spiritual beings, the cherubim and seraphim. We have examined their similarities and differences during past installments of this series.

We have now begun studying the term malachim, which is the masculine plural form of the term ma’alak, reflecting in the English term angels. This class of created beings is described very prominently in the Word of Yahweh.

Have you learned that there is a special angel? He is also known as the ARCHANGEL. He was manifested at several points in the book of Genesis, and He plays an integral part in the account of the Exodus of the nation of Israel from Egypt. We read in Exodus 13:20, “And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness. And Yahweh went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead the way, and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; that they might go by day and by night; the pillar of cloud by day, and the pillar of fire by night, departed not from before the people.”

You have probably heard many descriptions of the pillar of cloud and fire, but who appeared in that manifestation to the children of Israel? Exodus 14:19, “And the angel of Elohim, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them, and stood behind them.” The mighty Being in the pillar of cloud and fire is now called the angel of Elohim; in earlier passages, He is called Yahweh. You might find different explanations of this spirit being, since the Jewish people reject the One that we call Yahshua (the angel that appears in the New Testament). Nevertheless, the straightforward, fundamental explanation is that a mighty angel appeared in the pillar of cloud and fire, and He was called by the Name of Yahweh.

Then, we find in verse 20, “And it came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel....” This great manifestation separated between the Israelites and the Egyptians, who were urgently pursuing after Israel, attempting to bring them back again into captivity. “And there was the cloud and the darkness, yet it gave light by night: and the one came not near the other all the night.” The Egyptians were in the darkness, but the Israelites, under Yahweh’s protection, had light, as had happened on several other occasions.

We continue in verse 24, “And it came to pass in the morning watch, that Yahweh looked forth upon the host of the Egyptians through the pillar of fire and of cloud, and confused the host of the Egyptians.” How clear it is that there is a Being, who appears in the pillar of cloud and fire, who is called at some times Yahweh, and, in other passages, the angel of Elohim. Remember, Elohim means the strong one (or ones), or the powerful one. Who is your powerful one? Who has the authority you accept to dictate His Will and wishes to you? You must make the decision! I have made that decision in my personal life, that Almighty Yahweh and His Word will have free course in my life to instruct and direct me.

Let us now turn to Nehemiah 9:9. “And you saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Red Sea, and showed signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land; for you knew that they dealt proudly against them, and got you a name, as it is this day. And you did divide the sea before them, so that they went through the middle of the sea on the dry land; and their pursuers you cast into the depths, as a stone into the mighty waters. Moreover in a pillar of cloud you led them by day; and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light in the way in which they should go. You came down also upon mount Sinai, and spoke with them from heaven, and gave them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments, and made known to them your holy sabbath, and commanded them commandments, and statutes, and a law, by Moses your servant.... Yet you in your manifold mercies forsook them not in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud departed not from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go. You gave also your good Spirit to instruct them.”

A special angel is described here. This special angel uses the name Yahweh, BUT HE IS NOT THE FATHER YAHWEH, because, in John 1:18, we notice that no one has seen Yahweh at anytime. The only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, has declared Him to make known to us how we may become Yahweh’s true children.

Let us turn to Exodus 23:30. “Behold, I send an angel before you, to keep you by the way, and to bring you into the place which I have prepared. Take heed before him, and listen to his voice; provoke him not;

for he will not pardon your transgression: for my name is in him.” Ponder the implications of this passage. “My name is in Him.” The Father is speaking and the Spokesman is delivering the message. He is saying, “Beware of Him, listen to His voice, I am speaking through Him, my Name is in Him; my authority and my power is vested in Him. You can recognize that He is the true Spokesman, because my Name that He uses (which He did in the Old Testament) is in His Name and personality.”

“But if you shall indeed listen to his voice [the Spokesman], and do all that I speak [the speaker, who was our heavenly Father Yahweh Elohim]; then I will be an enemy to your enemies, and an adversary to your adversaries. For my angel shall go before you, and bring you in to the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Canaanite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite: and I will cut them off. You shall not bow down to their elohim, or serve them, or do after their works; but you shall utterly overthrow them, and break in pieces their pillars. And you shall serve Yahweh your Elohim, and he will bless your bread, and your water; and I will take sickness away from among you.” (Exodus 23:22-25).

The angel described here is known as Yahweh, but it is actually the second Yahweh. In Psalm 2:6, we are told, “Yet I have set my king upon my holy hill of Zion. I will tell of the decree: Yahweh said to me, You are my son; This day have I begotten you.” By turning to Acts 13:33, we are told that Paul taught how this Scripture in the Old Testament applies to Yahshua the Messiah. He will be the King. He is the Messiah, the Supreme Ruler of us all, and He has been made manifest for our salvation.

In Genesis 19:24, at the destruction of the cities of the plain, we notice something very significant. Lot had been brought out of Sodom, and he had fled to the small city which was named Zoar (the name Zoar in Hebrew means small). We read in Genesis 19:23-24, “The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot came unto Zoar. Then Yahweh rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from Yahweh out of heaven.” You see! Two Yahwehs are mentioned. There is one Yahweh in heaven and another Yahweh on earth. Remember, in Genesis 18, we find Abraham standing before this angel to plead for the preservation of Lot and his family.

Proverbs 30:4 confirms what I have been telling you. Now, remember, we are turning back and forth through the Sacred Scriptures, harmonizing the Bible just as Isaiah 28:10 instructs us to do. In Proverbs 30:4, we read, “Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended? [Who did that?] Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has bound the waters in his garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? [Who created the heavens and the earth?] What is his name, and what is his son’s name, if you know?” Yahshua our Messiah accomplished all of these as His Father’s representative on earth, and He fulfilled this prophecy.

I believe that the Name of the Almighty Creator was Yahweh Elohim. This is what we are told in the Hebrew text. I also believe that His Son’s Name comprises a part of the Name of Yahweh, the abbreviation of the name Yahweh as it appears in the term HalleluYah (Yahweh). Do you grasp the connection? The Messiah’s Hebrew Name is Yahshua. Consequently,

“My Name is in Him.” He came to save us, which is what His Name means. The Name Yahshua means Yahweh is Salvation.

Isn’t the text and wisdom of the Sacred Scriptures marvelous? The true interpretation of the Scriptures is so clear when we allow Yahweh to speak through His Word. I have made the decision to follow Yahweh’s Word as it gives us instructions concerning how we can accept Yahshua the Messiah and His teachings. Wars, Famines, and Let us consider some passages of Sacred Scriptures that deal with the last days, and the close of the age of man. Almighty Yahweh is in control of these prophecies. Yahshua the Messiah, in His Olivet prophecy, has pre-warned us of the fact that in the end of the age there will be wars and rumors of wars. “And you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars; see that you are not troubled; for these things must come to pass; but the end is not yet.” (Matthew 24:6). We can see this happening all around the world, where one nation is lifting itself up against another nation and threatening war. We must not panic, but we must prepare. Yahweh is giving us a narrow window of time to make our calling and election sure.

“For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there shall be famines and earthquakes in various places. But all these things are the beginning of travail.” (Matthew 24:7). We cannot place our head in the sand, as the proverbial ostrich does, but we must watch and pray. Now is the time to learn how to TRUST in Yahweh for ALL things, in EVERY WAY. “Blessed is the man that trusts in Yahweh, and whose trust Yahweh is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, that spreads out its roots by the river, and shall not fear when heat comes, but its leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.” (Jeremiah 17:7-8).

Earthquakes

Yahshua the Messiah, in His Olivet prophecy, clearly stated, “Truly I say to you, This generation shall not pass away, till all these things be accomplished. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away. But of that day and hour knows no one, not even the angels of heaven, neither the Son, but the Father only.” (Matthew 24:34-36).

“Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. BUT OF THAT DAY

OR THAT HOUR KNOWS NO ONE, NOT EVEN THE ANGELS IN HEAVEN, NEITHER THE SON, BUT THE FATHER.” (Mark 13:31-32).

In each of these prophecies, Yahshua the Messiah cautions His hearers (today, those who read His words) to WATCH AND BE PREPARED. “WATCH therefore: for you know not on what day your Master comes. But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief was coming, he would have watched, and would not have permitted his house to be broken through. Therefore be you also ready; for in an hour that you think not the Son of man comes.” (Matthew 24:42-44).

In Mark 13:33-37, He said: “TAKE HEED, WATCH AND PRAY: for you know not when the time is. It is as when a man, sojourning in another country, having left his house, and given authority to his servants, to each one his work, commanded also the porter to watch. Watch therefore: for you know not when the master of the house comes, whether at evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning; lest coming suddenly he should find you SLEEPING. And what I say to you I say to all, WATCH.”

“But WATCH YOU AT EVERY SEASON, making supplication, that you may prevail to ESCAPE all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.” (Luke 21:36).

Did you notice that Yahshua the Messiah, in each of these passages, uses the term WATCH?

Indeed, only Yahweh Elohim knows the day or the hour when He will send Yahshua the Messiah back to this earth. The Son does not know the time, neither the angels of Yahweh in heaven. Yahweh has not revealed when the time will arrive that the Kingdom of Yahweh will be established on this earth, and Yahshua the Messiah will reign supreme in judging the world for sin and establishing the righteous Kingdom of Yahweh. Nevertheless, we are told to watch and be prepared for that time.

Paul warns his readers in 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11. “But concerning the times and the seasons, brethren, you have no need that anything be writ- ten to you. or you yourselves know perfectly that the day of Yahweh so comes as a thief in the night. When they are saying, PEACE AND SAFETY, then suddenly DESTRUCTION comes upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall in no wise escape. But YOU, BRETHREN, ARE NOT IN DARKNESS, that that day should overtake you as a thief: for you are all sons of light, and sons of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness; so then let us not sleep, as do the rest, but LET US WATCH AND BE SOBER. For they that sleep sleep in the night: and they that are drunken are drunken in the night. But let us, since we are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation. For Yahweh appointed us not to WRATH, but to the OBTAINING OF SALVATION through our Savior Yahshua the Messiah, who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as also you do.” (1 Thessalonians 5:1-11).

Paul indicates that we are of the day and not of the night. He tells the people of Yahweh—His True Worshipers, His readers in the end days (today)—that we are not in darkness that that day should overtake us unawares. Yet, it will happen very quickly (like a trap closing), and we must all be prepared for the time when Yahshua the Messiah returns.

Yahshua the Messiah tells us that when we see the signs taking place that portend the end of the age (these prophetic signs that He has shown us in end-time prophecy), when these things BEGIN TO COME TO PASS, “Look up, and lift up your heads; because your redemption draws near.” (Luke 21:28b)

Furthermore, Yahshua the Messiah foretells, “For as the LIGHTNING, when it flashes out of the one part under the heaven, shines to the other part under heaven; SO SHALL THE SON OF MAN BE in his day. But first must he suffer many things and be rejected of this generation. And as it came to pass in the days of Noah, even so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They ATE, they DRANK, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and DESTROYED them all. Likewise even as it came to pass in the days of Lot; they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and DESTROYED THEM ALL: after the same manner shall it be in the day that the Son of man is revealed.” (Luke 17:24-30).

Let us summarize what we have just read here from the Sacred Scriptures. Yahshua the Messiah informs us that no one knows the day, or the hour, when Yahshua the Messiah will return. It is in the hands of our beloved Father in heaven, Yahweh Elohim. Furthermore, He has not even told the Son, nor the angels in heaven, when that time will be that He will send Yahshua back to this earth to establish His Kingdom. However, both Yahshua the Messiah and the Apostle Paul—and at other places—have told that WE MUST BE PREPARED, and we must be continually on the watch, looking up, for our redemption is soon to come when these end-time prophetic signs are fulfilled.

The Insanity of Worldly Babylon

Let us understand the prophet Jeremiah when he wrote in Jeremiah 51. He said very clearly in verses 5-8, “For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, of his Elohim, of Yahweh of hosts; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel. FLEE OUT OF THE MIDDLE OF BABYLON, and save every man his life; be not cut off in her iniquity: for it is the time of Yahweh’s vengeance; he will render to her a recompense. Babylon has been a golden cup in Yahweh’s hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunk of her wine; THEREFORE THE NATIONS ARE MAD. Babylon has SUDDENLY FALLEN and is DESTROYED: wail for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.”

We are told that Israel is not forsaken, nor is Judah, by their Elohim—Yahweh of Hosts—even though the land in which they live in the end times is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel. We are told to FLEE out of the middle of Babylon. Let us not forget that in Daniel 2, Nebuchadnezzar’s dream of the metallic image is described, and Daniel and his three friends explained the dream to Nebuchadnezzar. Here, Daniel indicates that the metallic image represents an era of rulership by a superior nation over the known world, which includes Yahweh’s chosen Land of Promise. Daniel declares that Babylon is the head of gold. What does the head do? It thinks for the rest of the known world. Therefore, we can bring that prophecy down to our age when there will be a world ruling power, known as the Beast, described in Revelation 13. This Beast system is a government that will rule over much of the world, and it will be a system, or a spirit, ruling the world of finance and economics, controlling the personal lives of worldly people. This is what the mark of the Beast will do—control the thinking process of its subjects and control the right hand—what they do.

The World is Insane

What would happen if a rocket with an atomic warhead was launched against the United States? How many people would die? Yet, we are currently in the war against terror. These terrorists are trying their best to infiltrate the United States, we are told. According to news reports there had been individuals who have entered the United States that have terrorist ties. These people, however, have been released into the population during the last administration. How many have gotten through? We don't know. Indeed, the radical Muslims are intent upon conquering the world and turning it into an Islamic kingdom.

Judgment Sweeps the Globe

Almighty Yahweh, in His prophecies of the end days, has predicted that His final judgment would be over the entire world. He intends to cleanse this world of evil, wickedness, and sin; therefore, He will judge with His judgments sweeping across the entire globe. The killed of Yahweh will be from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth.

We read in Malachi 4:1-3 that all of the wicked shall be burnt up, turned to ashes under the soles of the feet of the righteous. “For, behold, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all that work wickedness, shall be stubble; and the day that comes shall burn them up, says Yahweh of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. But unto you that fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings; and you shall go forth, and gambol as calves of the stall. And you shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make, says Yahweh of hosts.”

Day after day, as we scan through the news reports, we can surely perceive that fulfillment of the prophecies of the end of the age are appearing daily. The Bible is like reading a newspaper that was written thousands of years ago, and, yet, applicable for the time in which we are now living. Reading down through Matthew 24, it becomes obvious that all of these predictions are now coming to pass. Mark 13 and Luke 17 and 21 also predict the events that we see taking place all over world.

However, many news outlets and news programs are not reporting entirely the events that relate to the fulfillment of end-time prophecy. Let us glean the news from whatever source it comes—if it is a truthful and accurate report of events transpiring in the world today.

Food—A Major Issue

For decades now, since the government turned toward biofuels as a replacement for the fossil fuels that come out of the Middle East and other oil-producing nations, it has appeared that the world's reserve food stocks have dropped significantly. We were accustomed to having about 60 days of food supply available in reserve. Now it is just a few days. Covid should have revealed to us the vulnerability of the food supply—as supplies dwindled, prices soared. Inflation has also placed a greater burden on our food budget. Beef, chicken, and egg prices have reached unheard-of levels. But when you kill more than 100 million chickens because of Avian Flu, what else can be expected?

Drought has caused cattle ranchers to ship cattle to market because of dwindling hay and feed supplies. Famine, however, will occur in the end of the age, when a severe drought has been predicted. This drought will last for three and one-half years.

“These have the power to shut the heaven, that it rain not during the days of their prophecy: and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they shall desire.” (Revelation 11:6).

This prophecy harmonizes with what occurred during the time when EliYah the prophet was in a contest with the priests of Baal. “And EliYah the Tishbite, who was of the sojourners of Gilead, said to Ahab, As Yahweh, the Elohim of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be DEW NOR RAIN these years, but according to my word. And the word of Yahweh came to him, saying, Go from here, and turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan. And it shall be, that you shall drink of the brook; and I have commanded the Arabs to feed you there. So he went and did according to the word of Yahweh; for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan.” (1 Kings 17:1-5).

“And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but you, and your father’s house, in that you have FORSAKEN THE COMMANDMENTS OF YAHWEH, and you have FOLLOWED THE BAALIM. Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel to mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the Asherah four hundred, that eat at Jezebel’s table.” (1 Kings 18:18-19).

Financial System Strained

Quantitative easing—the printing of money to borrow our way out of a financial collapse, as well as years of near zero interest rates—have put an incredible financial strain on the nations of the world. Rather than deal with financial hardship, we have maintained our status quo by borrowing from our future. Consequently, we are more than $37 trillion in debt here in America. We are now spending more on the interest to service this debt than on our national defense. Babylon is soon to fall. A worldwide economic collapse is imminent.

All these things have been predicted in Revelation 18:11-20. “And the MERCHANTS of the earth WEEP AND MOURN over her, for NO MAN BUYS THEIR MERCHANDISE ANY MORE; merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stone, and pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet; and all citron wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel made of most precious wood, and of copper, and iron, and marble; and cinnamon, and spice, and incense, and ointment, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep; and merchandise of horses and chariots and slaves; and souls of men. And the fruits which your soul lusted after ARE GONE FROM YOU, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous are PERISHED from you, and men shall find them no more at all. The merchants of these things, who were made RICH by her, shall stand far off for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; saying, Woe, woe, the great city, she that was arrayed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stone and pearl! FOR IN ONE HOUR SO GREAT RICHES IS MADE DESOLATE. And every shipmaster, and every one that sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by the sea, stood far off, and cried out as they looked on the smoke of her burning, saying, What is like the great city? And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe, woe, the great city, in which all that had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her costliness! For in one hour she is made desolate. Rejoice over her, you heaven, and you saints, and you apostles, and you prophets; for ELOHIM HAS JUDGED YOUR JUDGMENT ON HER.”

This passage certainly describes what has been going on in the world of commerce for decades and even centuries. Now, with the tightening financial sector, and not having enough money to buy the commodities available from the world market, trade is lagging, and this prophecy in Revelation chapter 18 is being fulfilled in our time.

“And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come forth, my people, out of her, that you have no fellowship with her sins, and that you receive not of her plagues: for her sins have reached even to heaven, and Yahweh has remembered her iniquities.” (Revelation 18:4).

US and West Decline

Here, in the United States, it becomes obvious that our morality is suffering. Hollywood and the television entertainment media, as well as the news media are TRYING TO DESENSITIZE OUR COUNTRY TO SIN. This has been going on for decades, and a lot of it is now bearing fruit. The morality of the people of our country today has become coarse and desensitized to sin. However, we need not follow that path. All True Worshipers need to do is separate ourselves from the people of the world, so that we do not absorb their moral weaknesses.

The world today is in need of revival. First of all, we must send forth the message of salvation in Yahweh’s kingdom, reaching out to those who will listen to repent of their sins, just as Yahshua the Messiah preached in His day that the Kingdom of Yahweh is coming; therefore, the people should prepare to receive it. Repent now and believe the glad tidings of salvation in Yahweh’s Kingdom!

The Kingdom of Yahweh will be an era characterized by obedience to the commandments. Therefore, if we learn this now, we can be an asset to Yahshua the Messiah when He returns to establish Yahweh’s Kingdom and to reign over the nations supreme.

Implementing Yahweh’s Covenant Law would make a profound change here in our country. We believe that this Kingdom must be established soon. The signs of the end of the age are all around us! This Beast system will soon move into position to take power, as it is predicted in the book of Revelation, chapter 13. Must we go through this era? Almighty Yahweh wants to prove everyone on this earth, whether they will feed on and live by His Word or reject it. On which side will you be found?

Yahweh’s Kingdom Will Be an Age of Peace

“But in the latter days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of Yahweh’s house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and peoples shall flow to it. And many nations shall go and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of Yahweh, and to the house of the Elohim of Jacob; and HE WILL TEACH US OF

HIS WAYS, AND WE WILL WALK IN HIS PATHS. For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of Yahweh from Jerusalem; and he will judge between many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their SWORDS INTO PLOWSHARES, and their SPEARS INTO PRUNING-HOOKS; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. But THEY SHALL SIT EVERY MAN UNDER HIS VINE AND UNDER HIS FIG TREE; AND NONE SHALL MAKE THEM AFRAID: for the mouth of Yahweh of hosts has spoken it. For all the peoples walk every one in the name of his mighty one; and WE WILL WALK IN THE NAME OF YAHWEH OUR ELOHIM FOREVER AND EVER.” (Micah 4:1-5).

Here, in this passage, we are told that at age of peace and security will be imposed at the end of man’s age, when every man can sit under his vine and under his fig tree in the shade and meditate on the goodness of Yahweh when His millennial Kingdom will be established.

Jeremiah 30 describes the time of Jacob’s trouble, but he will be saved out of it by intervention by Almighty Yahweh. “Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob’s trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.” (Jeremiah 30:7).

Then, Yahweh says that He will recover His people, Israel and Judah, and bring them into his Promised Land. Here is the promise, “Yahweh appeared of old to me, saying, Yes, I HAVE LOVED YOU WITH AN EVER-LASTING LOVE: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn you. Again will I build you,

But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of Yahweh of hosts has spoken it. For all the peoples walk every one in the name of his mighty one; and we will walk in the name of Yahweh our Elohim forever and ever.

MICAH 4:4-5

and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel: again shall you be adorned with your tabrets, and shall go forth in the dances of them that make merry. Again shall you plant vineyards upon the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy the fruit of it. For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the hills of Ephraim shall cry, Arise, and let us go up to Zion to Yahweh our Elohim. For thus says Yahweh, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish, praise, and say, O YAHWEH, SAVE YOUR PEOPLE, THE REMNANT OF ISRAEL. Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the utmost parts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travails with child together: a great company shall they return here. They shall come with weeping; and with supplications will I lead them:

*I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born. Hear the word of Yahweh, O you nations, and declare it in the isles far off; and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd does his flock. For Yahweh has RANSOMED Jacob, and REDEEMED him from the hand of him that was stronger than he. And they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow to the goodness of Yahweh, to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and THEY SHALL NOT SORROW ANYMORE at all. Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together; for I WILL TURN THEIR MOURNING INTO JOY, AND WILL COMFORT THEM, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.” (Jeremiah 31:3-13).

Are you concerned about your salvation—expecting the imminent Second Coming of the Messiah? Today it seems most people have become hard of heart and are no longer willing to listen to Truth. For decades, we have been preaching on Bible prophecy in The Sacred Name Broadcaster. Can you see that they are coming to pass right before our eyes? However, who will open their heart and check out the things that we are teaching, and then MAKE THE NECESSARY CHANGES to prepare for the Second Coming of the Messiah?

Will you allow yourself to be persuaded by the Truth, or will you continue on until the judgment of Almighty Yahweh falls upon you? The choice is yours! We hope that you make the right choices today and begin living the Kingdom-way of life in anticipation of being included in Yahweh's Kingdom. Recipes for the Days of Unleavened Bread

Passover Bread

Ingredients:

- 3 pints milk
- 1 pound butter
- flour

Using a food processor, mix milk and butter, then add as much flour as needed to give it a body similar to pie dough. Divide into four parts and work each until it blisters; then roll out to the thickness of pie dough. Cut into 2'' x 4'' pieces. Score or prick with fork (like a pie shell). Bake at 350°F until lightly browned at the edges.

The Feast of Unleavened Bread is a very special time of year. During the holy days, our diet must be changed to fulfill all of the scriptural requirements of this Feast. We must eliminate all leavening (Hebrew—se'or and chametz, meaning yeast, barm, to swell up or corrupt) from our everyday lives. This includes all food sources and all products we use in our homes and on our bodies such as deodorants, toothpaste, vitamins, soap, beer, sodas, even dog food, etc. These are our dwellings, and no leavening agent may be seen in all our quarters (Exodus 12:15-19). Grain alcohol (sometimes used in extracts like vanilla) and distilled vinegar are also prohibited.

These leavening agents appear under such names as yeast (both baker's and brewer's), baking powder, baking soda (sodium bicarbonate), sourdough, barm (yeast), cream of tartar, or other names.

These ingredients can possibly emerge in such things as soap powder used for detergent, soup (canned, dry, or bouillon), angel food cake, table salt, vitamins, bread, crackers, cookies, cakes, soda pop, beer, and so on. This list is large, but it is important that we as True Worshipers get ALL of the leavening out (Exodus 12:15, 19 and Deuteronomy 16:4). Don't forget the crumbs in the toaster or the vacuum cleaner bag (after all the clean-up)! Be sure to read every label on all product containers in your home.

All these things have to be removed from your quarters (property). See Exodus 13:7 and 1 Corinthians 5:8—you cannot save them for later use. Remember to start early, checking all ingredients on every purchase that you make, and every item in your house. (Why not be a year-round label reader so that you can obey Yahweh's dietary Laws?)

To make the Feast of Unleavened Bread a special time, the following recipes are included in this publication. Joyous eating!

- 1/4 cup oil
- 1/2 cup popcorn kernels
- 1/3 cup sugar
- 3/4 teaspoon salt

In a large pan, heat the oil over medium heat. Add the popcorn and the sugar. Cover with a lid. Once the corn starts to pop, carefully shake the pan to stir the popping corn, then turn off when popping stops. Remove from heat immediately, then pour into a large mixing bowl and sprinkle with salt. (Due to the high heat of the pot, popcorn must be transferred immediately, or it will burn.)

For a caramel flavor, substitute with brown sugar.
